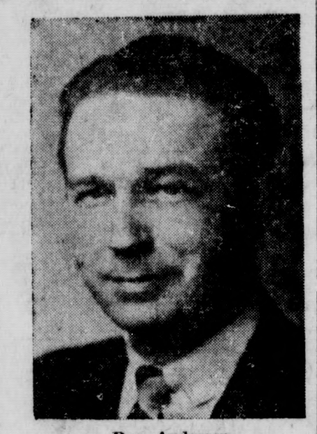
ANDERSEN RESIGNS AS CITY ADMINISTRATOR

LEAVES JOB ON MAY 1

City Administrator Dan Andersen submitted his resignation today, effective May 1.

His announcement followed closely on the proposal made by the city council to establish city manager form of government here.

Mayor Joseph Verducci, in the view of the suddenness of Andersen's move, said he was not prepared to make any comment on the administrator's resignation from the position he has held the past four years.



Dan Andersen
. . . Leaves May 1

Andersen apparently resigned on the knowledge that the city plans to hire a man with more experience in the field.

"Andersen's resignation should not be construed as evidence of dereliction of duty on his part," the mayor said. "The prime reason, I believe, is the fact that we are considering hiring a more experienced manager."

Andersen told THE RECORD he

School Asks $781,831 State Building Loan

Application for a $781,831.68 state loan to complete Benjamin Franklin school in Broadmoor was made by Jefferson Elementary School district trustees Wednesday night.

The district became eligible for state aid in that amount after voters approved issuance of bonds last year which will indebt the district to its legal capacity of five per cent.

On December 7, 1954, district residents approved a $1,486,000 bond issue for a five-year building program. Of this total, approximately $202,590 of the bonds will be sold this year to bond the district to the five per cent limit.

Request for the three-quarter millions dollar loan was ordered forwarded to the state board of allocation yesterday. If the board determines the district's request is justified, the money may be in the hands of the Jefferson district within a month.

One Of Largest

The Benjamin Franklin primary school project, one of the largest ever undertaken by the district, will include the following: Eleven classrooms, two mentally retarded classrooms, two wood shops, one library, one administration unit, one music room, one multi-use room, one science room, two homemaking rooms, one art room and site development work.

Plans are already in the hands of the state department of architecture. If the district receives the money in a month, it is estimated that construction might be started in April or May.

In other business Wednesday, the board:

1. Held over bids for supplying furniture at Colma Primary.

2. Held over calendar for 1955-56 school year.

3. Approved resignation of Mrs. Alice Eachus, first grade teacher at Benjamin Franklin, and hiring of Mrs. Margaret Florence as bookroom clerk, Miss Mary James as third grade teacher, Olympia. Charles Ehrhorn as bus driver-custodian, Charles Nichols as part-time custodian and Marion Owens as custodian at Colma.

Letter of Thanks

4. Received letter of thanks from seventh and eighth grade girls at Colma school for modern homemaking equipment installed this fall in the home arts room.

5. Heard report from H. E. Alfson, Colma school principal, on activities program developed there. He said the program, held four days a week from 2:58 to 3:40 p.m., has been met with "terrific response" from both students and children. Alson said the activities, which are student electives, "allow the child to achieve a measure of success in some area of his own interest." According to Alfson, the special activities do not detract from the "Three R's" of learning, but instead enhance the learning ability.

6. Learned from superintendent Weibel that Colma primary may be opened within three weeks.

Continuing Study

7. Tentatively approved a $25,000 continuing study which would anticipate classroom needs by determining plans of sub-dividers.

8. Held that the city of Daly City should take initiative in setting joint meeting to discuss use of money under state school community service law for recreation purposes.

8. Were asked by Trustee Mullen to oppose legislation favoring unification of school districts.

9. Discussed erosion problem at Garden Village school, where water has washed out portion of homeowner's property.

Trustees present at Wednesday's meeting were Cheatham, Mullen, Henry Kraus and Joseph Lewkowitz. Absnt was Trustee Michael Callan.

ARREST WOMAN HERE FOR ILLEGAL ENTRY

A 32-year-old Canadian woman, deported in 1953 after allegedly practicing prostitution in San Francisco, was arrested by immigration authorities Sunday at a Daly City address and held by the U. S. Marshall on charges of illegal entry.

She was arrested at a home on 113 Los Banos.

Berna Damico Kelly, alias Berna O'Hara, is scheduled to appear before the federal grand jury Wednesday. Her deportation occurred when she became involved with the case of Mabel Malotte, S.F. callhouse madam.

Under the law, Berna Kelly, if found guilty, will be liable for the maximum penalty of two years imprisonment, a fine of $1000, or both. She was arrested by John McGowan, Mark Convoy and Jack Slattery, investigators for the U.S. Immigration and Naturalization service.

The immigration commissioner has set a $1000 bond for the accused. Upon interrogation, the Canadian citizen claimed that she had re-entered the United States with a man in an automobile. She was picked up on a warrant issued in recent months, charging her with illegal entry.

ORDER LEGAL ACTION ON ATLANTA STREET

Condition of the half-street on Atlanta, aggravated by winter rains, brought demands for immediate council action from residents of the area Monday.

After hearing citizen protest on the dangerous situation existing on Atlanta, Councilman Edward Dennis, acting as mayor in the absence of Joseph Verducci, instructed City Attorney Frank Blum to "take legal action" to force completion of the street.

Half of the block-long Atlanta street is paved. The other half, owned by William Lagomarsino & Co., is still unimproved.

Residents told councilmen Monday that, "We'd like a permanent answer on what's to be done here."

Last week, according to one citizen, an Atlanta street resident was backing his car out of the garage and got stuck in the eroded un-paved area.

City Administrator Dan Andersen told the council that, "I contacted Ricco Lagomarsino and Tom Callan Jr. today and Callan claims his work involves only Callan Heights No. 3." According to Andersen, Callan says he is not concerned with Callan Heights No. 1 (which includes Atlanta).

"He told me he doesn't see why he should go back and complete Atlanta street when he's already done his half," Andersen related.

"If that job isn't done this week the city will do it and make them pay for it," Dennis interjected.

Lagomarsino has refused to complete his half of Atlanta street until Callan paves several blocks on Hoffman street which provides access to Lagomarsino's property.

During a study session after the open meeting Dennis told the city attorney to "take legal action" to force completion of the two streets.

Commenting on Lagomarsino's demand that Callan finish Hoffman street, Andersen said, "Lagomarsino is not a policeman. He's not the one who tells Callan what work should be done on Hoffman stret. That's the city's business."

SUBDIVISION ORDINANCE IS INTRODUCED

Daly City's lengthy subdivision ordinance, establishing detailed regulations for subdividing and zoning activities, was introduced by Councilman Sanford Vickers at Monday's council meeting.

The ordinance is scheduled to come up for first reading on February 14. Following second reading two weeks later, the legislation will become a part of the city's statutes, if approved by the council.

School Withholds Final Payment On Doelger Land

Jefferson Elementary district board of trustees Wednesday night withheld acceptance of payment on final installment to Henry Doelger for Vista Del Mar school site after it was discovered cost on paving was $6000 above original estimate.

Engineer Edwin Smith originally estimated the school district's share of cost for providing streets, curbs and gutters at the Bradley drive site in Westlake Highlands would be $23,021.20.

Price submitted Wednesday night for this work was $29,866.30.

"They should be able to come closer than that," said Trustee Katherine Mullen.

Board chairman Helen Cheatham moved that the figure be returned to Smith for possible adjustment.

The district has already purchased the school site. Cost of street work would bring total price of the transaction to $75,336.

POOR STREET CONDITIONS HIT BY CITIZENS

Paving of the city's streets, or lack of it, was brought to the attention of the city council Monday night by discontented citizens.

One man, a resident of Alexander avenue, demanded, "When are they going to re-surface the old streets in Daly City like they promised?"

City Engineer Edwin Smith answered that the Market street improvement project would be completed within a month. Bid work on other streets, the engineer said, would be called for early in the spring. He added, however, that Alexander wasn't included in the street improvement project.

"I'm not talking about Alexander," the man said. "It's Templeton and Acton streets that are bad." He added that maintenance of streets in that area was a "farce." He claimed the city "puts in blacktop one day and it washes out the next."

Councilman Sanford Vickers then said, "I asked the city administrator for a survey on street conditions. We've got to develop a long-range improvement program."

Administrator Dan Andersen answered that, "We've worked it out with the engineer to carry out this street work in spring. We're waiting for more materials so we can start hot patching the bad areas. There's already a recommendation in the budget for this."

Another member of the audience then lodged a complaint against the conditions of Hillside boulevard. "It's like a washboard," he said.

Andersen again spoke up, stating that re-surfacing of Hillside is

If all new Daly City residents increased the population as quickly as did a newcomer here, this community would soon be giving San Francisco a run for its money.

ROBERT J. PAYTON moved into his home at 1165 87th street recently. A short few days later his wife gave birth to a baby daughter.

Which just goes to show how a city grows.

That poor old lady at the "top of the hill" is driving everybody, including the cops, wild.

Incidentally, it was she who had the row with a top of the hill market proprietor, not a local restaurateur.

The lady's most recent maddening antics includes picking up a whole flock of items at a market, placing them on the checking stand.

When the checker gets all the stuff rung up, she decides she doesn't have enough money and starts putting back some of the groceries.

Then, when the checker rings up the revised total, she changes her mind again, starts taking back some of the replaced items.

After the whole deal has been consummated on the register to both parties satisfaction, the lady then tells the clerk to set the groceries aside for. I'll be in for them in a week or two."

Hilltop Hearing Is Over; New Arrests Implicate Hangout

DC POLICE NAB TWO HERE ON NARCOTICS RAP

Three Daly City policemen took part in the arrest of two local men in the break-up of what was described as a narcotics ring Wednesday, Chief Roland Petrocchi revealed today.

Lieutenant Roy Beecher, Officer Bruno Conci and Inspector David Johnstone aided state narcotics agents, San Francisco, South San Francisco police, and men from the San Mateo county sheriff's and district attorney's offices.

The raid resulted in the arrest of Richard Tooke, 22, of 42 Tallwood street, Victor J. Looper, 23, of 380 Miriam street, besides eight other men and a woman. The woman is Bernice H. Lewis, of San Francisco, a waitress at a donut shop on 6208 Mission.

Tooke was arrested in his home by Inspector Johnstone. Looper was apprehended when he went to the 42 Tallwood address while police searched the premises for narcotics. According to police records, Tooke, a long-time local resident, has been arrested previously as a juvenile delinquent.

According to San Francisco authorities, the dope ring peddles marijuana and barbituates to teenagers in the outer Mission district and Daly City. They claimed its members also sold to customers at the Hilltop Lodge, which now faces revocation of its liquor license.

"I haven't heard anything new about dope at Hilltop," Petrocchi stated. "To my knowledge, narcotics in Daly City is pretty well cleaned up and has been right along," he added. The chief reported that the case is closed as far as Daly City is concerned, unless other names are brought in.

A S.F. police undercover agent said he had seen Tooke pay for a meal in the Daly City Donut Shop with two marijuana cigarettes. According to Petrocchi, Tooke had been under police surveillance for a month prior to the raid.

Parking Authority Forwards Three Proposals To City

Use of city property and establishment of a bus terminal in lower Mission were among recommendations forwarded to the city council Monday night by the parking authority to relieve congestion here.

First recommendation called for development of city property behind the city hall on Wellington for employees and officials parking. Any extra space could be leased to the PG&E for use of their employees, the proposal said.

Second parking authority proposal asked that a bus terminal be established in the lower Mission area.

Also suggested was annexation of Castle and First streets and Second avenue to accommodate 500 cars.

Third recommendation was installation of parking meters on both sides of Knowles avenue from Mission street to Santa Barbara avenue.

INCREASE IN NURSE STAFF ASKED FOR JEFF

Two nurses are inadequate to meet the health needs of Jefferson Elementary School district's 4400 students.

This was concensus of report delivered before board of trustees Wednesday night by Mrs. Helen Delafield, health coordinator.

The coordinator made a recommendation that one more nurse be hired to allow the district to conduct a vision testing program and handle emergencies.

Mrs. Delafield told the board, "We have progressed considerably in the last two or three

LODGE OWNERS IN FIRM DENIAL ON ALL COUNTS

The three co-owners of the Hilltop Lodge denied all knowledge of narcotics activity at their establishment in two-hour long testimony here Friday that concluded the board of equalization hearing against the local night club.

The board, represented by Norbert Falvey, supervising Liquor Control Officer, seeks revocation of the night spot's liquor license, charging that the establishment was frequented by narcotics users and sellers and that smoking of marijuana in the place was a common occurance.

Defense attorney John J. Fahey summoned each of the owners, George and Ann Kirchhubel and Daniel Pallas, to the stand and they swore that they had kept the place under close surveillance and had never witnessed any evidence of narcotics on any occassion.

"Clean Bill"

Fahey closed his argument before Referee Ivores Dains with a statement that the Hilltop Lodge should be given "a clean bill of health."

Commenting on testimony of prosecution witnesses Red Graham and William McGee, who at an earlier hearing told of extensive narcotics operations at the Lodge, Fahey said, "Every witness but these two in this case has shown that there has been no wrong doing on the premises by the owners or even the patrons. Graham and McGee's testimony is not worth credence. Their statements are so overweighed by our evidence as to not even be credible."

"Exaggerated"

Continuing his assault on the two prosecutions witnesses, Fahey said, "Graham's background doesn't commend itself. It is so exaggerated that it points up its lack of credibility. This witness would have us believe that four or five people sat at the bar smoking marijuana while a Daly City police

WESTLAKE CLUBHOUSE COMPLETION SEEN BY SPRING -- ANDERSEN

A $25,000 clubhouse on the 10-acre Westlake park site "should be up by this spring," it was revealed Monday night by City Administrator Dan Andersen at a meeting of the Daly City council.

Andersen said Henry Doelger, who has offered to donate the clubhouse, agreed to construct the park facility as soon as necessary drainage installations and filling of the settling basin at the site on Lake Merced and Alemany boulevards were completed.

Clubhouse became a topic after a proposal from Carl Timmons and Ted Tronoff, representatives of the Doelger firm, who said they would like to enter into a joint agreement with the city for providing fill at the park site and surrounding property. The Doelger firm owns land adjacent to the park site which needs filling.

Lower Unit Price

Timmons said by entering a joint venture the city and Doelger would be able to guarantee an excavation contractor at least a 50,000 yard job, thus gaining benefit of a lower per-yard unit price.

According to Timmons, there are approximately seven acres of city park land which need to be filled with earth to a depth of three feet. If the city contracted alone for the job they would only require about 25,000 yards of earth and would pay a higher price per unit, he pointed out.

Asked by Councilman Sanford Vickers if there was enough money remaining in the budget to pay for the fill, Andersen said $10,000 of the park development money was still available.

Cut Cost In Half

Timmons said that by entering into a joint agreement with Doelger on supplying the fill, the city could cut the orginally estimated cost of $27,000 about in half.

Timmons estimated that the work of filling the park area could be completed in three weeks.

This prompted Vickers to ask if that meant Doelger could proceed with his recreation building at that time.

Andersen then made the statement that Doelger, "Figured to get it up by this spring."

After councilmen agreed to enter into the earth fill project with Doelger, Timmons said he would proceed immediately on negotiations with excavation contractors. He indicated that work could start this week if necessary.

In other action Monday night the council:

1. Passed a resolution authorizing payment of $12,592 to Keyston Muny Co. as third progress payment for work on Westlake Reservoir No. 2.

2. Approved second progress payment in the amount of $4761.90 to M & K Corp for work on Westlake park site storm drain outfall.

3. Authorized payment of $1025 to City Engineer Edwin Smith for work on the current water improvement project in Westlake.

4. Accepted map of Westlake Unit 7B.

5. Approved plans and specifications for Westlake pipeline to be installed between Westlake Reservoirs Nos. 1 and 2 and booster pump for Westlake Reservoir No. 1 and called for bids on both projects to be opened at 8 p.m., February 28.

Beer-Drinking Boys Turned Over To Parents

Two 6' 1" youngsters took a hint from the alcoholic hero on the Serra Theater screen Wednesday night. On the screen Van Johnson, in a drunken stupor, locked out Liz Taylor in the snowy Parisian night. In the balcony the boys were draining a quart of beer.

They were discovered by the theater manager, however, and turned over to Daly City police. The youths received a lecture and were placed in the custody of their parents. In the picture, Johnson repented.

CHARLEY MASCHINOT, local poundman, reports a third dead fawn found here. Most recent kill was left over the weekend at Marchbanks park, with only the head and hooves remaining. Somebody in the area has been eating good for the last few months.

The "panty thief" has struck again.

Latest victim was Mrs. E. Libby, 32 Crestwood, apt. 3, who reported to police Tuesday morning that the lingerie bandit had taken several unmentionables from her clothesline.

After a three-months rest, the thief has apparently resumed his panty prowling.

Because the tramp dog situation has worsened here, some folks are saying wryly: Why don't they pass an ordinance against people and turn the city over to the dogs?

Over the weekend two juveniles were arrested after attempting to swipe a jug of the Old Red from Gerold's Liquor store.

Later in the week, a man allegedly attempted to kill his wife in a domestic scrape.

A tenant who lived at the home tried to intervene, whereupon the enraged husband bopped him smack on the noggin with the 128 oz. variety of wine bottle which, even though empty, carries quite a wallop when forcibly swung.

The tenant not the wife, wound up in the hospital.

FOUR RESIDENTS GIVE TO BLOOD BANK

Four residents of Daly City and Colma donated blood to the county blood bank recently. They are Thomas A. Leeson, Daly City; Mrs. Glenn J. Irby, 936 Wildwood avenue, Colma; Floyd A. Melton Jr., 44 Station avenue, Daly City; and Howard Sawyer, 768 San Diego avenue, Daly City.

years in the health program here but there is still much to be done."

One reason the Jefferson district has been able to offer a reasonably adequate health program is through teacher assistance, the coordinator pointed out.

She said that teachers have been schooled in emergency treatment and have been a great aid to the health division by pointing out impediments or illnesses in children.

This cooperation from teaching personnel has been brought about by teacher-nurse conferences which are held throughout the year, she continued.

Mrs. Delafield said Superintendent H. Z. Weibel had been urging her to develop a program of medical-dental examinations for the children.

She said with the present staff it was impossible to handle this task, whereupon Weibel answered, "We're supposed to do these things without more help."

"What kind of a communistic state is this?" interjected Howard Richardson, a member of the audience. "Is this the school district's obligation to provide medical care for these children?"

Board Chairman Helen Cheatham answered that medical-dental examination was a necessary part of nursing care in the schools. "It's not the duty of government to supply this care," she said, adding however, that "As an individual you might become your brothers' children's keeper.

"With proper budgetting there's no reason why we can't approve Mrs. Delafield's recommendation for another nurse," Mrs. Cheatham said.

Mrs. Cheatham concluded that, "We certainly should interest ourselves in an expanded program." She urged that Weibel come to the board with a recommendation.

POLICE HUNTING FOR CHILD MOLESTER

"Don't tell anybody, I'll be back" a man in a gray sport coat told a six year-old girl he molested Monday.

Little Rosalinda Bell and her seven-year-old brother were playing in the rear of the Crocker school Monday at 4:30 p.m. A man drove up in a 4-door cream-colored sedan.

He persuaded the children to get into the car, where he molested Rosalinda. As he let the youngsters out of the car, the stranger promised to return. Their father Henry Bell, 243 Frankfort street, reported the incident to police.

has no plans for future employment, but indicated he "was available."

Andersen, formerly a theater manager, started in the administrator capacity with Daly City in March, 1951, at a salary of $6000. He received $7200 this year.

Rumors that the city was searching for a man in the $15,000 level were discounted by Verducci. "We'll seek the man instead of having the man seek the job," Verducci said.

He revealed that the council will begin immediately "exploring the field" for city managers.

Andersen said today he would also resign his post as secretary of the North County Council of Cities. The administrator served as vice-president of the League of California Cities in 1953.

In view of Andersen's May 1 resignation, it was expected that the city would start the machinery in motion for the manager form of government immediately. "We'll probably set a public hearing on it in a week or two," Verducci said. "If the public is for this type government we will try to activate it as soon as possible," the mayor continued.

The council can institute the city manager type government by ordinance.

officer (John Coleman) looked on."

Testimony of McGee, who was hired as a special investigator by the district attorney's office, was also attacked by Fahey.

"He dignifies himself with the title of investigator when it's just another name for stool pigeon," the attorney said.

According to Fahey, even McGee had given the place a "clean bill" at the close of an earlier hearing. Fahey said that McGee made the statemeint to Mrs. Kirchhubel, "Sorry I have to be here. You three people are running the place wonderfully. It's no fault of yours."

Decision Due 3 Weeks

Decision on the case will take at least three weeks. Referee Dains will make a complete report of the porceedings and forward his findings to the acting director of the new department of alcohol beverage control. Malcolm Harris, whose decision in the case is final.

Following the decision, should the license be revoked, the tavern owners would have a 40-day period in which to make an appeal.

Were the liquor control agency's attempt to revoke the license unsuccessful, it is probable that new charges would be brought against the establishment in light of testimony made in narcotics arrests this week, which implicated the Hilltop Lodge as a source for marijuana.

WARNING: 8 DAYS LEFT TO RENEW CAR REGISTRATION

Daly City motorists have just eight more days, including today (Thursday) to get their 1955 license tabs. And Saturday is only a half-day.

The deadline for renewing the registration on all types of vehicles is Friday, February 4. After that, the law requires the state department of motor vehicles to impose penalties on all late renewals.

Under the law the flat registration fee of $8 is doubled, and a penalty of 50 per cent of the license fee is added on renewals made after the deadline, it was explained by director Paul Mason.

The Daly City office, 6615 Mission, will be open to handle all types of renewals from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. on week days, and until noon of January 29, the final Saturday half-day of the registration period.

The temporary registration stations in banks in various parts of the state are open only during banking hours, and are authorized to make renewals only upon presentation of the pre-punched fee statement cards mailed from Sacramento.

Owners who failed to receive cards are still required to renew before the deadline, and may do so by presenting their 1954 white slips at the Mission office. The bank stations do not handle this type of renewal. Auto clubs handle all types of registrations for members only.

Fees remitted by mail must be postmarked not later than midnight February 4.

Two Motorists Cited In Mission St. Collision

Both drivers were cited in a collision at Mission an Alp streets Saturday afternoon. Marshall McFarland, 90 Melrose, San Francisco smashed into the rear of a car driven by Jum Lum Lew, 6624 Mission. Lew was tagged for failure to signal properly.

The city engineer explained that the city was attempting to get the county to participate in the Hillside work, since majority of the traffic on the thoroughfare is from outside Daly City.

Vickers suggested that to relieve the problem Hillside be closed to all commercial traffic. "It would be difficult to do," Smith said. "But it's not a bad idea."

Edward S. Riley Case Completed After Five Months

The mixed-up case of Edward Sidney Riley, Stockton resident, came to an end in Municipal Judge Thomas L. Bocci's court last Thursday. Riley made restitution of $250 to George Kirchhubel and paid a fine of $100.

The Stockton man first came to police attention last September when he was arrested on an assault and battery count at a local tavern. A bench warrant was issued when Riley failed to pay the $150 fine set by Judge Bocci.

He was re-arrested in November, in still more trouble. At the time of his first arrest, Kirchhubel, local tavern owner, had posted $200 bail for him and $50 bail for another man at Riley's request.

The court was under the impression that the bail was Riley's, so the $200 was handed him on his release. About the first of November Kirchhubel asked the court what had happened to his money.

Riley had accepted the bail money belonging to Kirchhubel and spent it, but not in paying his $150 fine. When taken into custody in November, Riley had $150 in his pockets. The judge ordered the money held for three weeks by the police department. Riley was scheduled to appear before the court on November 26 and make restitution of Kichhubel's money. He failed to appear.

A second warrant was issued December 8. Riley was apprehended by police last week. The realy mixed-up case of Edward S. Riley was marked closed in Bocci's court last Thursday.

ASK LIBRARY BRANCH FOR WESTLAKE AREA

Daly City library commission's recommendation to purchase 5000 square feet of property for a Westlake library site was taken up by the city council Monday night.

City Administrator Dan Andersen was scheduled to meet yesterday (Thursday) with Jack Kendree, managing director of Westlake shopping center, to look over possible sites here.

The commission proposes that a 50x100 foot lot be purchased for the Westlake library branch.

According to Andersen, San Mateo county has agreed to help finance the project by purchasing books and paying wages of some personnel.

However, the county will render aid only if residents of Broadmoor are allowed to use the library facilities.

Councilmen agreed to this stipulation, pointing out that county assistance in the project would mean several thousand more books and at least one more library clerk.

The library commission has tentatively selected a site at the end of Fairway drive near the shopping area.

Andersen indicated Monday that he would have something "concrete" on the library site by next week.

Commissioners are currently designing the interior of the proposed library branch.

Citizens' Group Wants Facts On Civic Issues

"We want to know what the benefits to the taxpayers will be if Daly City changes to the city-manager form of government," Abe Rabinowitch, member of a citizens group, said today.

The group, named the Daly City Civic club, is organizing to bring information about civic enterprizes to the residents. According to a metropolitan paper, their main concern is the proposal to hire a $15,000-a-year city manager and switch to the charter form of government.

Rabinowitch stated that a protem chairman has been elected from the 25 members of the group. He added that the organizing began four or five months ago when civic-minded residents wanted to know more about the issues before the city. He expects officers for the group will be elected within the next few weeks.

Thieves Take Hub Caps, Battery From Cars

David M. Monroe, 81 Park Plaza drive, reported to police Monday that the two front hub caps on his 1953 sedan had been stolen.

Also under investigation by police is the theft of a car battery belonging to Orville Slason, 672 Evergreen street. The battery was taken from his auto last week.

NEW MEN'S CLUB OF HOPE-CHURCH MEETS ON FRIDAY

To Discuss Foremost Features of '55 Sked

The newly reorganized Men's club of Hope Lutheran church holds its first meeting of the new year next Friday to discuss some of the foremost features of its program for 1955. The group will gather at the Broadmoor community center at 8:30 p.m.

One of the first projects of this group was the annual dinner, prepared and served by the men of the church, which preceded the annual congregational meeting last Sunday evening. Seventy members were present to enjoy the meal and hear the annual reports of the officers and committees of the church and the other organizations of Hope congregation.

One of the chief items of business for the next meeting will be the establishment of various volunteer work teams to assist in the building of the new church. This program will commence within the next few weeks. Much of the painting, cement patio work, and general assistance to the builder will be done by the men of the church.

The new officers for 1955 are: Manuel Moreno, president; Rocky Hagerman, vice-president; Robert Neff, secretary; and Fred Hamann, treasurer.

Hope Lutheran church invites the men of this community to attend this group and help develop their own Christian interests. Regular services are conducted by Hope Lutheran church every Sunday at 11 a.m. at the Broadmoor community center. The Rev. Louis C. Marting is pastor.

MOTOR TRUCKS

One-sixth of all vehicles on the highways are motor trucks, reports the California State Automobile Association.

WESTLAKER WINS NEW CAR; THINKS JOKE AT FIRST

George Thompson, 1256 South Mayfair, thought somebody was pulling his leg Thursday night when he received a call notifying him that he had won a 1955 automobile.

Next day, when the TIMES called to congratulate Thompson on his good fortune he realized it wasn't just a hoax pulled on him by fellow milk company employees, as he had thought earlier.

Thompson held the winning ticket in the benefit drawing for the Girl Scout camp at Sonora.

The winnign ducat, purchased at his place of employment, was the only one he had bought.

Thompson, a milkman, says things have been happening pretty rapidly for him in 1955. On December 18 his wife delivered him a baby girl, their first child.

On December 20 he moved to Westlake. And a little more than a month later Thompson discovers he is the owner of a brand new vehicle.

Drawing for the new car was Held Thursday night at Green Hills Country club. According to Peter Markovich, local representative for the Girl Scout fund drive, the drawing netted approximately $10,000.

EIGHT CARS IN THREE COLLISIONS

Eight cars were involved in three rear-end accidents in a 17-hour period beginning Sunday.

The only one resulting in injuries took place at 5:28 p.m. Sunday on Junipero Serra near Parkview avenue. Marie Dufau, 10, a passenger in the second vehicle, was treated for shock and abrasions.

One driver of the three was cited for traffic violations. The car driven by a 17-year-old San Francisco girl was tagged for running into the rear of the vehicle operated by Theodore Dufau Jr., of S.F. The third car driven by Hazel Delmatier of S.F. was damaged in the rear.

Two Car Accident

Charles Blondino, South San Francisco, was cited when his coupe smacked into a sedan operated by Robert Yelkin, Millbrae, on Hillcrest and Mission Monday morning.

Alcohol and Three Cars

Alcohol played a part in the other Sunday triangle accident. Salvador Gomez, Menlo Park, was arrested Sunday afternoon after his old model coupe ran into the rear of one car, causing it to damage another.

Gomez was taken to Junipero Serra hospital for the alcohol test which proved to be positive. The accident took place on Alemany and Lynnwood. Other motorists involved but not cited were George L. Rex., S.F., and Lois D. Blum, 33 Dorchester.

WHAT'S DOING

Thomas R. Gilbert, your Telephone Manager in Daly City

Left-over wire gets new lease on life

In the telephone business, we call the wire that leads from your telephone at home to the pole outside a "drop" wire. Maybe you've seen some of our men putting up drop wires around town. If you have, you probably noticed that a few short pieces were left over on some of the jobs. Now, these odds and ends of wire weren't of much use until recently. It was too costly to splice them together. But now an economical way has been found to join drop-wire scraps into long, continuous pieces which can be put to work. Naturally, this is a big cost-cutter . . . one that helps us as we work to keep down the prices you pay for service. Pacific Telephone works to make your telephone a bigger value every day.

Home's never very far away by telephone

Just because Dad's out of town on business, he needn't be out of personal touch with the rest of the family. In just moments, you can all be together again—visiting, laughing, trading the latest news. For even when you're far away, home's as near as the closest telephone. And a visit by long distance is almost like being there in person. It costs so little, too. You can make a three-minute "station" call clear across the country, after 6 p. m. weekdays and all day Sunday, for only $2.00 (plus tax). And of course, rates for shorter distances are even less. So let long distance keep you in close touch with your family and friends. It's a pleasure you can hardly afford to miss.

"HE CAN'T PICK IT UP—BUT HE CAN ANSWER IT"

The San Francisco Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis recently tested the ingenuity of a telephone plant man.

Joseph Chew of 1215 Vallejo St., was stricken by polio last New Years eve and had his heart set on using the telephone. Chew could move only his head and the fingers of his left hand. Bert J. Leroux, installation foreman solved the problem. He rigged an operators head set on a specially shaped piece of copper pipe, and attached it to the side of the wheel chair. On the chairs arm he mounted a switch. Now, to answer calls, or to get the operator, Chew flicks the switch and rests his ear against the head set.

DUTIES OF A CITY MANAGER

In order to better inform the people of Daly City about the city city manager form of government which councilmen have proposed, we feel the mechanics of this type administration should be outlined.

A sample ordinance setting up this type government states that the manager's duties and powers are as follows:

He is administrative head of the government of the city under the direction and control of the city council.

The city manager shall see that all laws and ordinances of the city are duly enforced and that all franchises, permits and privileges granted by the city are faithfully observed.

It shall be the city manager's duty to control, order and give directions to all heads of departments and to subordinate officers and employees of the city through their department heads.

The city manager shall have power to appoint, remove and demote any and all officers of the city of Daly City, except the City clerk, the city attorney and the city treasurer.

It shall be the duty of the manager to recommend to the city council for adoption such measures and ordinances as he deems necessary or expedient.

The manager shall at all times keep the council fully advised of the city's financial conditions and shall prepare and submit the annual budget and salary plan to the council.

The manager shall purchase all supplies for all of the departments of the city and no expenditure shall be submitted or recommended to the city council except on report or approval of the manager.

It shall be the manager's duty to make investigations into the affairs of the city and each department thereof, and any contract of the proper performance of obligations to the city.

He shall investigate all complaints on administration of city government.

The manager shall exercise control over all public buildings, parks and other city property.

He shall be heard by all city commissions and boards on all matters upon which he wishes to address them.

These, in brief, are the powers and duties delegated to a city manager by ordinance. Next week we will delineate the duties of others in city government with respect to the city manager.

Letters To The Editor

San Mateo Attorney Francis Hits McKays Letter On Younger

Dear Editor:

A few days ago you published the letter of Mr. James T. McKay in which he unfairly and unjustly attacked our congressman, Arthur Younger, and his bill HR 1863, which provides that the sale of narcotic drugs to a minor shall be a criminal offense punishable by death or life imprisonment.

Mr. McKay devoted half of his letter criticizing Congressman Younger's first two-year term of office, and more particularly that our congressman kept us informed as to what was happening in our national capitol. Ordinarily, a congressman is lauded and commended for such an extra service rendered to his constituents, but Mr. McKay for some strange reason feels otherwise. In regards to Congressman Younger's record, may I remind Mr. McKay that our congressman was re-elected on his good record in November by a substantial majority of over 10,000. votes.

The Main Point

The main point of Mr. McKay's letter, however, is his charge that our "congressman has misfaid his civic books," because Congressman Younger's narcotic bill "very evidently invades a field of law that was never granted to the United States government by the states and the federal government does not have jurisdiction in this field."

Obviously, Mr. McKay is not a lawyer and knows little about constitutional law or political science. Yet he erroneously accuses our congressman for lack of knowledge in elementary civics.

Someone should advise Mr. McKay that there are numerous Federal narcotics laws in force today which have withstood all attacks on constitutional grounds.

Section VIII of Article I of the United States constitution provides, in part, that Congress shall have power to regulate commerce with foreign nations and among the several States. . . . This is an exclusive and plenary power given expressly to the Federal government.

Commerce Is Traffic

In case Mr. McKay does not know what "commerce" means in the legal sense; "commerce" is traffic, that is, the buying and selling of commodities (narcotics), and includes as an important incident the transportation of such commodities (narcotics) from seller to buyer. This national legislative power is so strong and exclusive that the United States Supreme Court has repeatedly recognized that Congress can restrict and even prohibit certain commerce. In Brooks vs. U.S., which was decided in 1925, the Supreme Court adopted this doctrine;

"Congress can certainly regulate interstate commerce to the extent of forbidding and punishing the use of such commerce as an agency to promote immorality, dishonesty, or the spread of evil or harm to the people of other States from the State of origin." This case is right on point. There is no room for argument where narcotics are involved. Who needs the civic books now, Mr. McKay or Congressman Younger?

Very respectfully yours,
LOUIS FRANCIS

My Mad World

By Leonore Brewer

Some time ago we made brief mention of Lillian Ross's book, "Picture," the story of the filming of "The Red Badge of Courage." At that time we had intended to review it the following week, but what with one thing or another, never got around to it.

Art is art and business is business and when the two meet headon the encounter is bound to be interesting. Miss Ross takes full advantage of an unparalleled opportunity to detail a blow-by-blow account of the conflict. With considerable humor and painful honesty she pictures the constant bickerings and endless frustrations of life in, what another witness of the Hollywood scene once called, the dream factory.

The film was first sneak previewed at a theater seating 1600, and during the showing of "Red Badge" 32 people left. Not being in the business of making films, we would say that you can't expect to please everybody and if you lose only 2 per cent of your audience you're doing okay.

However, we must be wrong, as these walkouts led to the removal of a scene which both the producer and the director felt vital in the story development.

The picture was sneak previewed several times and after each sampling of public opinion, a conference held and new changes made. The result was not what John Huston had in mind as he shot the picture.

Even after the changes it did not make money for the studio, albeit considerable critical acclaim. One cannot help wondering what would have happened if they had just left it alone.

Thinking back over the difficulties in making this film we are no longer amazed that the Hollywood product is often so disappointing. We are only amazed, and grateful, that there are as many fine films as there are.

As we do not own a television set we don't know much about the goings-on in the TV world. However, we understand that Bill McGraw has a new program called "San Francisco Tonight" which can be seen at 10:45 on KGO-TV. Why do we mention it? Two members of his show live in Westlake —Barbara McRitchie and Glen Kerr. It was news to us, so we thought we'd pass it along.

For readers interested in fine pianists: Paul Badura-Skoda, brilliant young Viennese pianist, plays for the first time in San Francisco at the Veterans Auditorium, Monday.

Broadmoor Youth And Family Know Benefits Of Drive

In a pink-and-white house on MacArthur drive in Broadmoor lives a boy with his father, mother, two brothers and a black dog. This could be any house in the neighborhood. It isn't. It's a thankful house.

Thankful that a 12-year-old boy can run and play baseball again. The boy is Richard Lair. In October, 1952, he was stricken with polio. The family was taking a weekend trip to Santa Barbara, a trip still remembered by Mrs. Margarita Lair. "Dick complained of a backache," she said, "everyone thought it wasn't enough to call a doctor about."

But as mothers will, Mrs. Lair called a doctor. Polio, left leg and back, was his diagnosis. Dick spent the next eight weeks in the Santa Barbara and St. Francis hospitals.

As a science teacher at Jefferson Union High school Clarence Lair provides for his wife and three boys. But there was no hospital insurance, nothing for medical bills.

That's were the March of Dimes came in, paying the fees which amounted to between $3,000-$4,000. After the hospital came the long months of convalescence. Again the March of Dimes fund helped, through the Morrison Rehabilitation center. Dick went to the center for a year and a half.

Today Dick swings a baseball bat just like any other 12-year-old boy. That's why the Lairs are thankful.

"Leave your porch lights on next Tuesday when the Mother's March on Polio," Mrs. Lair asks. "I'm glad I did." And if you want to know what happens to your contribution stop in at the Morrison Rehabilitation center or watch Dick run the bases.

LAUD SEAL CHAIRMAN FOR SALES INCREASE

A. J. Bodien, director of the recently completed Christmas Seal sale in Daly City, was this week lauded by general chairman Theodore M. Lilienthal of San Mateo.

In a letter to Bodien Lilienthal said, "You will be happy to know that the sale for 1954 was most successful. The increase in contributions over last year amounted to 10 per cent and this was due in no small part to your work and help as local chairman."

A lake sturgeon, caught in 1953, was determined to be 152 years old.

NORTH COUNTY GOES ALL OUT FOR GOOD CAUSE

Thousand of volunteer women were ready today for the annual "March of Mothers" phase of the 1955 "March of Dimes" polio funds campaign being held this coming Tuesday evening, here and through out the country.

Chairman for the north county districts this year again is Mrs. Vivian Stewart, of 320 Arroyo drive in South San Francisco, who has arranged details with her lieutenants among various individual Parent-Teacher groups in this area for their participation in this vital phase of the drive.

In Daly City, chairman of the "March of Mothers" is Mrs. Sanford Vickers, of 155 Abbott avenue, Mrs. Stewart announced.

The women, with perhaps a few men again helping this year, are set to call on all homes where the porch light is burning, signifying those within want to make a contribution to the "March of Dimes," these leaders explained.

Those living in apartments were urged "to tie a scarf, a shoe or something on the door outside, meaning they also want to make a donation to the polio fund Tuesday evening."

The "March of Mothers" drive officially is set for one hour, between 7 and 8 o'clock Tuesday evening, Mrs. Stewart repeated.

Members of the 17th District of the California Congress of Parents and Teachers, Inc., headed by Mrs. George Elliot of Pescadero as president of this countywide organization, are cooperating with the San Mateo County Chapter of the polio Foundation again this year as volunteers in the "March of Mothers," she said.

In the event anyone is missed Tuesday evening, Mrs. Stewart urged they send checks made out to the "March of Dimes" to the Polio Foundation, care of Community Hospital in San Mateo in San Mateo, county headquarters of the campaign again, as in recent years.

National Automobile Club Warns: Don't Gamble On The Curves

Don't gamble on the curves, advises the National Automobile Club.

Since it is easy to underestimate both your speed and the sharpness of a curve ahead, you should approach all highway curves with caution. It is much wiser to enter a curve at a low rate of speed and then accelerate while rounding it than to enter at a high rate of speed and have to brake while rounding the curve. Excessive speed on a curve will put your car in the relentless grip of centrifugal force, throw it out of control, and drag it from the road. Excessive speed on a curve can all too easily end in disaster.

The next time you are approaching a bend in the road, take it easy, play it safe. Don't gamble on the curves.

Highway Patrol Emergency Phone In Use February 1

SACRAMENTO—The California Highway Patrol emergency telephone number "Zenith 1-2000" will be in use practically statewide by February 1 according to an announcement released today by the Patrol.

"This special service is designed exclusively for reporting traffic emergencies outside cities to the Highway Patrol," declared Patrol Commissioner B. R. Caldwell. "There is no charge for the service even when the Patrol office called is in a toll zone.

"In order to keep the Zenith 1-2000 line open for real traffic emergencies, routine matters should continue to be reported in the usual manner using the regular telephone number assigned to the Patrol office in the area," Caldwell continued. This will enable the Patrol to handle emergencies more expeditiously.

"Motorists are urged to carry the emergency number on their persons or in their cars for ready reference. Additional information concerning this program may be secured from any Highway Patrol office," the Commissioner added.

"California is the first state to offer a statewide emergency service covering traffic emergencies."

A grand total of 3,835,242 automobiles, trucks, and busses entered California through border quarantine stations during the year 1954, reports the National Automobile Club. This figure represents an increase of 76,921 over that for 1953, when 3,758,321 motor vehicles entered the state.

ALL PROGRAMS SUBJECT TO CHANGE ● NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR LAST MINUTE SCHEDULING

YOUR NEIGHBORS AND MINE

By Betty Brush

Hello Neighbors:

Already it is the last week of January and as usual the folks who make the news are still the ones who phone in. There are other neighbors too, who would like to see their names in the paper but wait for me to call them. If they just would realize I don't know who does what until my phone rings, they would call PL. 5-6482 and I would be most happy to hear from them. In the meantime, here is the news of the rest of the folks.

To start the week off, we had a surprise birthday party in honor of MISS JANE HOLECEK. This very gala affair was held at the home of her parents MR. and MRS. JOHN HOLECEK of San Diego avenue. Among the over thirty guests who attended this affair was MR. EARL WILLIAM McCUNE, son of MR. and MRS. EARL McCUNE SR. of Los Olivos avenue, her fiance. His gift to her upon this occasion was a beautiful ring with three garnets in a gorgeous setting of gold. Mr. McCune is currently attending the University of California and Miss Holecek is employed by an Insurance Company. The young couple are planning a late summer wedding and Miss Holecek received many gifts for her birthday which she can use later.

Another birthday, and this young man will be one year old on January 27th. DAVID ALLEN BRUSH, son of A 2/c JAMES BRUSH of Japan and MRS. ALLEEN BRUSH of Boulder Creek, had quite a day for himself. He went to spend his birthday with friends in Santa Cruz and was guest of honor at a party given in his honor. Among those present were the RISAS TWINS—MARK and AMY, who aren't too much older than David himself. A very happy birthday is wished David from all the rest of the folks who love him too.

Celebrations and congratulations were in order last week. MR. and MRS. WILFORD MILLER were being congratulated upon the advent of their 13th wedding anniversary. They were surprised in their home by a gathering of family and friends and a grand dinner and evening was had by all. Congratulations from all the folks to a very nice family.

Items of Interest

All the folks and most certainly all of his little friends will be glad to hear that Officer ART ALVISO (the Kids' Cop), is progressing nicely after his operation last Wednesday. Art is still in Fort Miley hospital, and one and all will be glad when we see him come home. Keep plugging Art, I've had more than a dozen phone calls asking how you were.

Well, folks, here I go again. Once more I have been requested to have THE RECORD reprint an article which has been run before. If you will bear with repetition, here it is:

"Friendship! What is it? We meet people every year of our lives. Why do some friendships last and some fall by the wayside? To quote Francis Bacon, 'For there is no man that imparts his joy to his friend, but he joyeth the more: and no man imparts his grief to his friend, but he grieves the less.' Friendship is understanding, affection, peace and most of all, knowledge of one's friend for themselves without judgment. Here is the way to bear life—because without friends one is indeed alone even though in the midst of a crowd. If a person has a friend—that friend is another himself. If a person has a true friend he is safe in the knowledge that he will live on—a true friend never forgets. One lives through many things; through one's friends a person's memory lives on forever. Friendship in the true sense of the word is above price."

Thanks, folks, for asking to read this again.

Ah! We can all be beautiful again beginning next week. Our friends and beautician, MRS. LYNN BOSKEY, will be in the shop starting Monday. Of course, she will only be working four hours a day at first, and gals, I'm first. Really, you should see me and you would know it for sure.

Our town has another brand new citizen. MR. and MRS. CHUCK MALDONADO of Knowles avenue welcomed a baby girl into their family on January 12th. The young lady tipped the scales at 8 lbs., 6 oz. and has been named DEBORAH JEAN. Of course, brother MIKE, who is a little over a year, can't quite see why she can't be big enough to play with.

Servicemen

Heard from the U. S. Army this week. P.FC. RICHARD FITZGERALD, who is a cook in the big Army hospital in Georgia, writes that he tried to make it home for Christmas but since he didn't, he would like to say hello to all the folks. Wife MAUREEN sends her best wishes too, and they both hope to be home on furlough soon.

Another of the fellows has made the change from uniform to civies. P.F.C. ALBERT D'ISEP is now home and a very happy young man he is to be here. At present his plans for the future are indefinite, but whatever he plans the best wishes of the folks most certainly are with him.

P.F.C. DICK BLACKBURN was home for awhile and he too has been returned to civilian status. He is also among the newly married and at present is living in Georgia, where his wife, a member of Uncle Sam's finest, is stationed. A hello is sent all his friends, too.

News and Views

Well, folks, we had our annual hobby show for the children sponsored by HILLCREST CIRCLE No. 143 U.A.O.D. last weekend. The ladies were co-sponsored with OLIVE GROVE U.A.O.D. and both the ladies and the fellows put in a lot of time and effort on behalf of all the youngsters. An orchid to these people who gave so very much of themselves for the enjoyment of our youngsters. The chairman of this event was MR. NICK LEONONDAKIS of Olive Grove, ably assisted by MRS. MADELINE FELLOWS of Hillcrest Circle who served in the capacity of Secretary-Treasurer.

There will be a whist game for all the ladies today (Friday) at 1 p.m. It will be held at the home of MRS. MARY WAKEFIELD and cake and coffee will be served. This is the kind most people find exciting, as it is a telephone whist, so be sure and go. It is sponsored by the Ladies of the Jefferson High PTA.

Another young man has a birthday this week and it's tomorrow. Young FREDDIE HOBBS will be six years old and he will be host to twelve youngsters plus members of his family at a birthday party to be given in his honor at the home of his mother. Happy birthday, Freddie, from all the folks, too.

Had a phone call last week from a youngster I've known for more years than I care to admit. MISS BEVERLY "COOKIE" CRAIG, daughter of MRS. DORIS CRAIG would like to announce her coming wedding to MR. JAMES McGEE, son of MR. and MRS. DAVID McGEE of Mission street. They have set their wedding date for early June at O.L.P.H. Mr. McGee is working as an upholsterer and future plans will be passed on to the folks as I get them.

Having a birthday last week was MISS DONNA CARRINGTON. She celebrated the event on January 22nd and had a very wonderful day. Happy birthday, Donna, from all the folks, too.

One of the nicest of neighbors and certainly one of the most unsparing of herself, would like to say thank you. MRS. EVE HOBBS of Risel street, who has been the chairlady for so many years on the T. B. Seals campaign, would like to extend her heartfelt thanks for their most wonderful cooperation during the past many months. The following ladies are those to who so many owe so much: MESDAMES ELLEN WALLACE, EMMA D'ISEP, WINDHURST, CECILE HALE, STANFORD HANNAH and MRS. GORNAO. She hopes to have them as coworkers again next time.

Another of the folks has a birthday and as usual with ladies she's not talking. MRS. OLGA BORDSON of Templeton avenue celebrates the day Saturday, the 29th. Happy Birthday.

The FRIENDLY NEIGHBORS held their last monthly meeting at the home of MRS. BERNICE McELEWE of 19th avenue. A luncheon was served which all the ladies thoroughly enjoyed.

Well folks, this does it for another week. Remember all you neighbors who would like to see new names in the column—the phone is still PL. 5-6482, and I'll be most glad to hear from you. Until next week then, 'Bye now.

SF AREA'S 10,000 SCOUTS PREPARING FOR NATIONAL OBSERVANCE FEB. 5-12

San Francisco area's 10,000 Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts and Explorer Scouts are getting ready to celebrate Boy Scout Week 1955 here February 5 through 12.

Joining with their nearly three million fellow Scouts across the nation, San Francisco Scouts will observe the 45th anniversary of the founding of Scouting in America during the 8-day celebration.

Theme of this year's Boy Scout Week is "Building for a Better Tomorrow."

In San Francisco more than 10,000 Scouts and their 3000 adult volunteer leaders will participate in some phase of the hundreds of activities planned for the week-long celebration.

In this huge birthday celebration of Scouting, the city government, along with service clubs, community organizations, corporations and other institutions will pay tribute to San Francisco Scouts in special events planned for the occasion.

100s of Posters

Hundreds of posters announcing Scout Week 1955 have been distributed by Scouts throughout the city and are on display in windows and bulletin boards of offices, stores, hospitals, libraries and public schools.

Most of San Francisco's 314 Scout Units (123 Cub Packs, 134 Scout Troops, and 57 Explorer Posts) will hold open houses, parents' nights, or special banquets during the week.

As a prelude to the opening of Scout Week 1955, the S. F. Kiwanis Club will hold a luncheon February 1 in honor of Scouting, with a full Scout program.

Scouts from the Richmond and Sunset Districts of the S. F. Scout Council will hold parades in their neighborhoods on the opening day of Scout Week February 5. The Sunset parade will end in Golden Gate Park, where more than 1000 Scouts will be reviewed by city and Scout officials.

Religious Observances

There will be special religious observances of Scout Sabbath February 5 and Scout Sunday February 6, held in temples and synagogues, and churches of every faith throughout the city. Scouts in uniform and their leaders and parents will attend the services. A parade of some 2000 Catholic Scouts of the Archdiocese will march up Van Ness avenue to St. Mary's Cathedral for reverent observance of Scout Sunday on February 6.

The first Eagle Recognition Dinner ever to be staged in San Francisco will be held at the Bohemian Club on February 8. Fifty Eagle Scouts will be hosted by 50 prominent local business, professional and civic leaders. Chairman of the dinner is Carl F. Wente, retired president of the Bank of America.

A Shrine luncheon honoring San Francisco Scouts will be held on February 10, with a Scout program including demonstrations of Scouting skills.

Other events throughout the week include Scout participation in civic ceremonies in honor of Lincoln and Washington at the City Hall service club luncheons where Scouts will be featured speakers, and the annual Scout Day at the S. F. Naval Shipyard, Hunter's Point. A special banquet of the Scout camping honor society, Order of the Arrow, will also be held.

Chairman of Scout Week 1955 is Prentiss A. Rowe, civic leader and retired business executive, who is being assisted by a committee of more than 40 prominent San Franciscans.

Top Membership

The San Francisco Council also celebrates during Scout Week its all-time high boy membership of over 10,000 Scouts. There are more than 3,660,000 Boy Scouts and volunteer leaders throughout the nation, and more than five and a half million Scouts enrolled in the Scout movement in 56 nations of the world.

The Boy Scout movement was brought to the United States in 1910 by the late American publisher William D. Boyce of Chicago. While on a business trip to London, he found himself lost one day in a dense London fog. A British Boy Scout's "good deed" in assisting him to his hotel ultimately led to his bringing the Scout movement to the United States. The Boy Scouts of America was incorporated on February 8, 1910, in Washington, D. C.

A group of men, representing 34 national groups interested in youth, started developing the organization and opened a temporary office in New York.

This was the beginning of the Boy Scouts of America.

It has expanded in the past 45 years from a small temporary office in New York city to a $3,000,000 newly-completed modern two-story structure built on a 40-acre tract of land in New Brunswick.

AVERAGE RAINFALL

Average annual rainfall in extreme Northwestern California is more than one hundred inches, according to the National Automobile Club.

CROCKER STUDENTS TELL ACTIVITIES OF THE WEEK

Sixth Grade - Room 6
Miss Connelly, Teacher
Written by Kathleen Jacoby

We are making tribal masks of South American Indians. Some of the children collected sequins, buttons, radio tubes, feathers, rings, bells, old doll's hair, balls and such for decorating them. We plan to start making our masks sometime this month.

Recently, during physical education period, we have been playing net-volley ball in competition with Mrs. Clark's fifth grade. On Thursdays during P. E. we learned how to square dance and remained after school on that day to practice our dances just for fun. Some of the boys and girls who remain after school make up new steps and we all know the calls.

Fifth Grade - Room 5
Miss Laury, Teacher
Written by Susan Sciaroni

Our class made ashtrays and candy dishes out of clay. Some of us made statues. We painted and glazed them.

We have a new girl in our class. Her name is Donna Rafter.

Friday we are going to the Planetarium. Everybody brings their lunch and we are going to eat in the Golden Gate Park.

Douglas Eastman brought some pictures and information on airplanes.

$10 FOR "THE RAVEN"

One reason for the lack of prominent writers in the last century may be the low pay. Edgar Allen Poe received $10 for "The Raven." Longfellow, a well-known author, was paid $25 to $50 per poem.

Ceramics Classes At Mateo College

Ceramic classes sponsored by the College of San Mateo Adult Center at Coyote Point, have been taught by Mrs. Leta Gerrard since January 11. Champion Nixon, who has taught the classes for number of years, is leaving for Mexico to work and to teach under the sponsorship of the United Nations.

Mrs. Gerrard brings to the classes five years experience in the field of ceramics. For the past two years she has worked as assistant to Mr. Nixon in his classes at Coyote Point and in his studio at Mountain View. Mrs. Gerrard has done work in design with Marion Hartwell of San Francisco and special classes in glaze work.

During the last years, Mrs. Gerrard has exhibited her own work in various west coast shows. She exhibited at the Tulare County Fair in 1953, entered pieces in the City of Paris show in 1954, and won awards at the Santa Clara County Fair in 1954.

Mrs. Gerrard finds her experience in the field of ceramics a personally valuable one. There is a starting place for everyone, according to Mrs. Gerrard, in the field of ceramics, no matter his previous experience. Working with one's hands is relaxing; this gives one something to do; he can see an actual physical result from his work. It gives one the satisfaction of having made something himself, of having given form to his own ideas of artistic expression.

The ceramic classes meet at Coyote Point in Room 10 A on Tuesdays from 9-12 a.m., 1-4 p.m. and 7-10 p.m.; on Wednesdays from 7-10 p.m. and Thursdays from 9-12 a.m. and 7-10 p.m. The Tuesday afternoon class will present advanced wheel work and glaze making; the Wednesday evening class will center its attention on the use of clay in the public school classroom.

Another Wine Bottle Splashes Crime News

Another wine bottle hit the police news last week. Duane A. Hickman, 466 Winchester, used the bottle on Ray Devine's head last Friday.

Tenant Devine tried to stop Hickman from attacking his estranged wife, Lela Mae Hickman, 350 Crocker avenue. He was hit on the head for his trouble.

According to the report, Hickman grabbed his wife around the neck and said he would kill her. Following the scuffle with Devine, Hickman grabbed his wife's purse and fled. Police are investigating.

"Romeo and Juliet" Play To Capacity Crowds In 5th Week

One of the better adaptations of a Shakespearian drama, "Romeo and Juliet," is still playing to capacity crowds in its 5th week at the Stagedoor theater in San Francisco.

Somewhat camouflaged by a technicolor Italy, background music which often comes into the foreground, and brilliant costumes of the Renaissance, the lines managed to gain our attention about the time Juliet was asking Romeo "What's in a name?"

At this point it seemed a bit farfetched that the swaggering juvenile played by Laurence Harvey would commit suicide for love of the bland, unseasoned Juliet of Susan Shentall.

The program tells us that Director-adapter Renato Castellani defied the star principle in casting Miss Shentall, an unknown without acting experience, in the lead role. It is revolutionary. Miss Shentall makes no impression until Juliet asks Friar Laurence, amusingly portrayed by Mervyn Johns, for a sleeping potion to escape an illegal marriage.

During the next scenes she gives a high-level performance unique in American theater annals.

Laurence Harvey, who has played Romeo on the stage as well, is known to both Stratford and Broadway audiences. Mr. Harvey is an over anxious Romeo who falls in love with Rosaline or runs a sword through a Capulet with shrug-of-the-shoulders equanimity.

One of the more delightful characteristics was offered by Flora Robson as Juliet's nurse. An international actress, Miss Robson has made memorable appearances in the motion pictures "Caesar and Cleopatra" and "Black Narcissus."

Castellani has combined British and Italian veterans of the theater and motion pictures, unusual star casting, and the camera work of Robert Krasker to form a worthwhile version of the greatest love story of all time.

Those accustomed to the Technicolor, Cinemascope, Stereophonic 8-name star Hollywood productions will no the disappointed in the sheer art and imaginative presentation of this classic.

Attorney Speaks On Juveniles At PTA Meet

Parents who attended the Hillside PTA unit meeting at Colma school last week heard a talk by Jerome Sapiro, San Francisco attorney. Sapiro spoke on juvenile delinquency, causes and possible cures.

The attorney, speaking also as a father of five children, stressed some of the causes of delinquency. Among them were broken homes, environment, influences outside the home, glandular and mental disturbances.

Part of the cure, he said, lies with the community by striving for better recreation centers and facilities, boys clubs, and other social groups. Parents can combat juvenile delinquency by doing their part in the home and the community. Sapiro outlined 14 rules for aiding the parent in this community problem.

Youth Refuses To Name His Juvenile Assailants

A 15-year-old boy refused to identify his alleged assailants Friday at the Daly City police station. The youth claimed to have been attacked by juveniles, whom he said were fellow students at Jefferson Union high school, when he was on his way home from a basketball game.

Village Notes

By Gwin Mitchell

Lots of birthdays around about lately; they can be good reasons for an extra special party or project or some new clothes or something. . . . Dale Atwood had an eighth birthday celebration over on Louvaine, complete with 49er decorations, football and all. Guests Danny Driscol, Micky Nyberg, Kenny Moseley, John LePine and Dale's sister, Terry, had a fine time. . . . And Elizabeth Mendez had a seventh birthday which included 18 guests at her home on Maddux! Mommy must have been tired afterwards! . . . Then there was a luncheon party on Sweetwood to make David Harvey's eighth birthday a happy one Patty Raymond, Johnny McKinley, Billy Ellis, Roy Long and David's brother, Robby, all went to an afternoon movie as an extra treat. . . . Janet LePine had a very nice kind of twelfth birthday—a family celebration and, later in the week, an evening at the symphony, no less. . .

Sorry to hear that there have been so many people bothered by an assortment of colds, flu and other things. Hope any of you who have been on the sick list are all well by now, and that the list dwindles down to nothing. Maybe some sun will make a difference.

All the peculiar weather we have been having will leave a memento for the Krueger family. . . . There are some hail-snowballs safely laid away in the freezer!

Showers have been going on indoors as well as out—particularly a baby shower given for Helen Richardson by Lee Johnson and Dorothy Goodwin, at Dorothy's Louvaine home. The little Richardson-to-be will have a good start in life with gifts from Ruth Tashro, Reba Nye, Mary Cordano, Micky Driscoll, Marge McDonald, Rose Welch, Ramona McDonnel, Marie Kraus, Pat St. Clair, Inez Weibel, Anna Hayes, Ann Parks, Marge McKay, Ginny Marovich, Dolly LePine and Scotty Humberto.

Vi Murphy now has her foot out of the cast, and just in time to welcome her sister-in-law, Mrs. Robert Lasley, who came down from Red Bluff on a shopping expedition. She will be going to join her husband in Germany, where he is a first lieutenant with Army Intelligence, and is stocking up on cottons to take with her. Word has it that while woolen clothing is plentiful over there, cottons are scarce. Mrs. Lasley plans to leave around the end of the month.

We had an occasion to use the services of the Broadmoor police department recently with regard to a small emergency involving a child. . . . It brought to mind a point in the recent report of the Congressional committee which has been making a nationwide survey on juvenile delinquency—namely that, in so many communities, living is on such a large and complicated scale that children no longer enjoy the benefit of knowing many people personally, such as their teachers, the police, etc., and that this may be one cause of so much trouble, as these people can help guide the actions of the children when they aren't at home. . . . Therefore, we can count it as a very good thing indeed that Broadmoor is blessed with the police department it has, with men who are willing and anxious to help their community in so many small ways. . . . There are a lot of people who will go along with a large vote of appreciation for their services. . . .

A buffet supper was held Saturday evening, January 15, for the elders of the Broadmoor Presbyterian church and their wives. . . . The Rex Spruiells and the Herbert Hopkins shared the role of hosts at the Hopkins home in Daly City, and were joined by the Howard Richardsons, David Wholtons, Ray Logans, George Irvines, John Rueds, John LePines and Rev. and Mrs. John A. Glasse for a pleasant evening. . . .

Man of Distinction memo: Larry Green of Manila Way has been exhibiting some pictures in the art show sponsored by the American Artists' Profession League in Los Angeles; he was recently notified that one of his pictures was chosen to represent the California group at the League's national exhibit in New York. Congratulations!

Uncle Sam is still busy sending greetings . . . latest recipient was Phillip Jacobs, advertising director for King's Market, and son of owner Mike Jacobs. Monday, January 17, was The Day for him!

A nice way to finish a week is to have friends in for dinner on Saturday night, and that is what Martha and Cec Pinney did. Jan and Peter Rizzo and Mary and Ray Lichtenberg were the guests who enjoyed a pleasant evening. . . .

Heard by the grapevine that Mrs. Theodore Bartelmez is taking over as Den Mother of Den 10 (Cub Pack 84), with Mrs. Michael Orlich assisting. . . . A Garden Lane news item.

Attention, all parents with several children! If you have been wanting to take a trip someplace to visit relatives or friends and are worried about traveling with children, please call the Tom Gantert family! They took their 6 children—four of them 5 and under—back to Minneapolis on Dec. 22, and came back January 9 after a wonderful visit with all the relatives on both sides, and an equally wonderful trip to boot. . . . They traveled by train both ways (Zephyr to Omaha and up, going, and the Empire Builder through Montana and Washington and down, coming home) and had no trouble at all. They had a suite of double bedrooms one way and a drawing room the other, and with all that space to themselves, there was no worry about the children and other passengers. One bunk was left made up all the time for naps, and meals were sent in, with trips to the dining car for treats. So there's the prescription, and Mrs. Gantert is very enthusiastic over the whole thing. She is now a Seasoned Traveler!

SCHOOL NOTES

Eighty-seventh Street school is sort of balancing the attendance books in Mrs. Fernekes' first grade room. . . . Gregory McCarthy is back to school again, all recovered from his accident, but Linda Reed is leaving the class, as she is moving to Los Angeles with her family. . . . We're glad you're back, Greg, and sorry to lose you, Linda.

Over at Benjamin Franklin, Mrs. Eakus' third grade is putting on a puppet show for themselves this week, after having made the puppets and written the show and managed and directed and produced at a great rate! It ought to be a wonderful production, with so much thought and work put into it. . . . Not to be outdone, Miss Franck's first grade is putting on a toy pet parade for the second grade, with stories, poems and songs about pets as some of the featured entertainment. They are having this project as a culmination to their "Pets at Home" study series.

Garden Village school has busy fourth and fifth grades this week, with Miss Peira's class planning a trip to Mission Dolores in San Francisco as part of their "Early California" social study series. . . .

Mrs. Fisher's fifth grade has been invited to tour the S. S. President Cleveland by Mr. Holmes Benson of the American President Lines.

This will be a part of their "Transportation and Western Movement in the United States" studies. . . . California Indians are the central project of Mrs. Small's group, where basketry, movies, a frieze, dioramas and a life-sized figure are part of the class work along this theme. A new dancing period is an exciting part of their school week, with folk dances and the Virginia Reel part of the work for the year.

Second Workshop For School Personnel Scheduled February 3

14 Killed, 141 Injured In '54 Hunting Accidents

Fourteen persons were killed in hunting accidents in 1954, or one less than the previous year, Earl Macklin, acting chief of Wildlife Protection branch of the Department of Fish and Game, said today.

The year saw a total of 141 casualties involving injury, against a reported total of 79 in 1953.

However, Macklin said that because of a more efficient reporting system in 1954, all accidents were listed. He said there is no way of determining whether or not the 1953 report represents the actual total.

Only one junior hunter, having passed the junior hunter safety course required last year for the first time, was involved in an accident, and that one non-fatal.

Shotguns were responsible for most of the casualties, or 79 cases; rifles accounted for 43, and handguns five.

For the first time in several years there were no fatal accidents during pheasant season, when a comparatively small area of the state is jammed with hunters.

Macklin said that the report indicates the need for stepped-up measures in hunter safety training among beginners, and continued safety education among adults.

"There is no such thing as an unavoidable hunting accident. They are caused by either ignorance or carelessness," Macklin said.

The Record

MAJOR JEROME J. CHRISTIAN, 102 Wilshire avenue, has been appointed to the staff and faculty of the special associate courses, Command and General Staff college, Fort McArthur, Calif. He will instruct classes on military subjects to senior Army officers attending the College, January 23 to February 20.

DALY CITY MAJOR APPOINTED TO COLLEGE FACULTY

FORT MacARTHUR, Calif. — Major Jerome J. Christians, 102 Wilshire avenue, Daly City, has been appointed to the staff and faculty of the special associate courses, Command and General Staff college, Fort MacArthur, Calif.

Major Christians will instruct classes on military subjects to the approximately 180 senior Army officers who will attend the college at the San Pedro, Calif., post, January 23 to February 20.

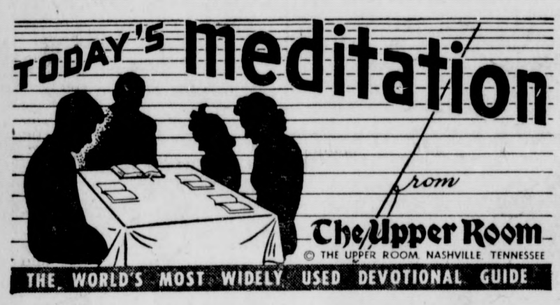
Held yearly in the Sixth Army area since its beginning in 1948, the special associate courses are conducted to train officers for high-level staff and commend assignments by familiarization with general staff responsibilities in the corps, army and communications zone levels.

The staff of instructors have graduated from the college's center at Fort Leavenworth, Kans., and all have outstanding combat and service records. They have a combined total of over 700 years of service, including 72 years of combat.

Serving in the Pacific Theater of Operations during World War II, Major Christians holds the Bronze Star Medal, the Combat Infantryman's Badge and the Purple Heart.

A graduate of the University of Idaho, Moscow, Idaho, in 1933, he is employed as a sales tax auditor for the state of California. He is a member of the Phi Delta Theta fraternity.

His mother, Mrs. Catherine Christians, lives at 2709 24th street, San Francisco, Calif.



Read Jeremiah 26:12-16 or Matthew 20:20-28.

The Lord sent me to prophesy against this house and against this city all the words that ye have heard. (Jeremiah 26:12.)

One day Jeremiah had stood in the court of the Lord's house and spoken to the people, calling them to repentance. The priests, prophets, and people seized him and said: "Thou shalt surely die." During his brief defense, he spoke the words of our text.

The accusing ones could not but admire him for the courage of his convictions. Their respect was all the greater when he said: "As for me, behold, I am in your hand: do with me as seemeth good and meet unto you." He put the burden on them.

Jeremiah was acquitted. The verdict was: "This man is not worthy to die: for he hath spoken to us in the name of the Lord our God."

Because the spirit of God was in Jeremiah, he properly viewed his own life. He saw aright also the relationship between God and himself, God and the people, and the people and himself.

In every age God gives to those who devoutly love him and obediently follow Him a true view of life.

PRAYER

Our Father, we find inspiration in considering the lives of Thy servants past and present. Grant to us that holy view of life as found in every close follower of Thine. We pray that the mind of Christ may be in us. In His name. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

To see life from God's viewpoint, we best see it through the spirit and mind of Christ.

Safety News

What About S-D Day?

S-D Day has come and gone to the accompaniment of one of the greatest publicity programs safety has ever known .

Was it all worthwhile? Was anything actually accomplished?

Let's look at figures.

On the comparable day in 1953 —Wednesday, December 16th—a survey made by the President's Action Committee for traffic safety showed that 60 traffic deaths had occured. On S-D Day there were 51 traffic deaths—a reduction of nine deaths from the year before.

Were these nine lives worth all the trouble and shouting?

They were if one of them happened to be yours—or that of someone you love. And the S-D Day bonus went far beyond those nine lives. It benefited several hundred people who would have been injured in traffic accidents on S-D Day had the toll been normal instead of below normal.

And think what the lowered S-D toll meant to the thousands of drivers who were spared dented fenders or worse from minor accidents that might have happened that day but didn't.

And if the nine lives saved still seem pathetically few in terms of the big build-up, just extend that 17.5 per cent saving to the entire year of 1954.

If the reduction effected on S-D Day could have prevailed every day of 1954, more than 6000 lives would have been saved.

And S-D Day did much more than save lives and prevent injuries and accidents on that one day alone. It focused public attention on the traffic accident problem and the need for solving that problem to a degree that few people had believed possible. Headline after headline, broadcast after broadcast, TV show after TV show, outdoor advertising panels, lapel buttons and cards, banners, posters — every conceivable medium of public information contributed unrestrainedly to making the day a success.

If advertising and publicity and public education are of any value at all—and does anything about it?—S-D Day will have a carry over that will prevent accidents and save lives and limbs for a long time to come.

What about S-D Day? In our considered judgment it was tremendously worthwhile.

Scientific Precision

Factory service experts are speaking a language of more scientific precision to field forces today, according to the National Automobile Club. The enormous increase in the use of instruments for measuring car defects in service stations has enabled the factory service man to make his point as clear and precise as does the engineer dealing with a foreman at the plant where the car is made.

That mechanics may differ widely in degree of their skill makes less difference now that instruments measure the results of their work. The service station's check of the individual employee's performance keeps the station from putting out inferior jobs.

CAR STOLEN FROM MISSION GAS STATION

A 1950 model auto left at a service station, 7499 Mission, by Manuel Tognoli, Box 41, Colma, was stolen Wednesday morning.

A man described as a 35 or 38-year-old Negro climbed in and calmly drove away as the attendant waited on other cars.

TICKETS FOR LINCOLN DAY DINNER ARE GOING RAPIDLY; NOTED JUDGE TO SPEAK

Tickets for the Lincoln Day Dinner, being staged by the San Mateo County Republican Central Committee, are selling rapidly, according to Don Jamieson, ticket chairman.

Principal attraction is Judge Stanley N. Barnes, assistant United States Attorney General in charge of the anti-trust department, who will speak on "Lincoln's Challenge to America."

Judge Barnes, former presiding judge of the Superior Courts of Los Angeles county, is regarded as one of the ablest speakers on the national scene today, having addressed several of the largest national conventions held in eastern cities last year.

As chief assistant to U. S. Attroney General Herbert Brownell,

Stanley N. Barnes
. . . "Lincoln's Challenge"

he is in charge of major cases for the government.

Judge Barnes served as president of the University of California Alumni Association, and for two years was Regent of the University.

At last year's Big Game, Robert Gordon Sproul, Chancellor of the University of California, presented him with a plaque honoring him as the "outstanding graduate of the University."

Tickets for the dinner are $5 and may be obtained from Republican headquarters at 231 2nd avenue, San Mateo, or from any member of the Republican Central Committee.

The dinner is being sponsored jointly by the Central Committee and the volunteer Republican organizations of the county, including the Republican Assembly, Young Republicans, Council of Republican Women, and South County Council of Republican Women.

Dan Minto is chairman of the affair, which will be held at the San Mateo Elks' club.

"Jug Of Wine" Lands Juveniles In "Hot Water"

When the Persian poet wrote about" a jug of wine" he didn't mean it for juveniles. ..Two 17-year-old boys are in the Hillcrest juvenile home today for attempting their own bacchanal.

Last weekend one of the boys entered Gerald's Liquor store, 6739 Mission street, while the other youngster waited in a car.

According to Herbert Berthe, manager, the boy tried to steal a jug of wine. Berthe took the bottle away, and literally kicked the youth out of the store.

His companion in the car rescued his pal with an 8-inch spring blade knife, threatening the manager.

A police officer, summoned earlier when Berthe became suspicious of the car, arrived on the scene. The youths hopped into the car and led police on a mile chase. They were caught and charged with disturbing the peace, assault and battery, and attempted assault with a deadly weapon.

When Berthe identified the two at the police station, one of the boys lunged at him and threatened his life. Police quieted the boy, both youths were placed in the juvenile home.

Arctic Surgeon Back After Odyssey To Frozen Hinterlands

Doctors, especially military ones, have strange experiences sometimes. Dr. Robert F. Gobar, Gobar Medical building, 101 Wellington, arrived home last week with a history making tale.

A lieutenant and senior medical officer, Gobar was aboard the icebreaker "Burton Island" last year when it sailed the almost-legendary Northwest Passage for the first time in history.

For five centuries such explorers as Hudson and Frobisher have searched artic wastes for a navigable short cut between the Atlantic and Pacific.

Attempts were made in 1941 and 1944 by a Canadian vessel, but it did not penetrate the Mc Clure Strait, which geographers regard as the western entrance to the Northwest Passage.

Last year the ice covering Mc Clure Strait melted enough to enable the American-Canadian expedition to break through the last lap of the Passage. The "Burton Island" made the trip with the Coast Guard ship, "Northwind," and a Canadian ice breaker. The ships carrying scientists of both countries were conducting hydrographic and ocenographic surveys in the artic region.

Artic Surgeon

Gobar has the distinction of being labeled the "artic surgeon." He performed more appendectomies north of the artic circle than any other physician in history. In two years of duty, the "artic surgeon" did five appendectomies, treated two broken hands, two cases of frost bite and two instances of partial snow blindness.

Lone Hunter

For recreation the medical officer didn't have very far to go . . . just over the side of the ship. In mid-ocean he merely climbed down to the ice which surrounded the "Burton." Armed with his 300 Magnum Weatherby, the doctor would hunt, the only one of the crew inclined to the sport.

One hundred miles from the nearest land, Dr. Gobar would approach his target, usually a bear, and fire. (Polar bears depend on their sense of smell primarily. The doctor would stalk from downwind.) That night the ship's crew would be served 1500 pounds of bear as a side dish.

Sometimes the doctor wouldn't have to worry about carrying the ice toward him. The "Burton" progressed as fast as eight miles per hour, but at times it crept along, making only 1700 yards in 24 hours. Then the crew would help drag the carcass to the ship.

Dr. Gobar tells of one bear which came within 50 feet before he shot it. He saved the hides. One now serves as a rug on his living room floor in his Daly City home. He bagged a total of one kodiak and three polar bears, in addition to two caribous in his excursions. The doctor said he saw only 15 polar bears in 24 months so his percentage was pretty high. According to the sailors, polar bear tastes pretty wild but caribou is delicious!

Successful Fisherman

Dr. Gobar was the only successful sailor fisherman in Kodiak. He landed two salmon, weighing seven to ten pounds in 30 minutes with 4 pound test spinning tackle. As to hunting luck in general, in the arctic, the Daly City man brought back 1000 pounds of polar bear (frozen) for his wife Peggy to cook. However, he said, the Aleutians are sparsely populated with game and the hunting is rough. Dr. Gobar was discharged from the Navy on January 20 and has resumed his local practice. Dr. Gobar served four years in World War II, and was recalled to service in 1953. He has been a resident of the bay area for 15 years, locally practicing since 1947.

BAPTISTS SAVE $30,000 COSTS ON CONSTRUCTION

Westlake Church To Start Project Soon

Architect Enar Erik Holm and church construction superintendent, A. Christenson, last week concluded all revisions in the first unit of the Westlake Community Baptist church, the Rev. Roy Milam, pastor, announced yesterday.

The necessary revisions will save over $30,000 in construction costs and enable the church to get started after a few more minor details are taken care of. The lowest submitted bid was more than $75,000, making it prohibitive for the Baptists to build unless construction costs could be brought down considerably, the pastor said.

Church Trustees David Lithgow, John Brad Drye, Jim Sorenson, Ray Christain, George Henderson and Adolph Nagy have spent many hours to determine what items should be temporarily eliminated in the first unit, Milam pointed out. Voluntary labor by the men of the church, under the direction of the construction superintendent, with additional help of required union labor, will enable the church to accept the modified building program and erect the chapel unit which will seat 200. The educational plant with Sunday school facilities to take care of well over 1000 and the main sanctuary, seating 800, will not be undertaken for at least two years, Milam continued.

The church meets at present on the second floor of the Westlake Medical Dental Building, 48 Park Plaza. A capacity attendance crowded into the beautiful chapel last Sunday, Milam said. The rising increase in Sunday school attendance has likewise filled present Sunday school facilities, the pastor added.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Davis and their son, George, were welcomed into the church membership recently. Sunday Miss Horvath was welcomed into the church membership by transfer of letter, bringing to 25 the number of church membership additions in a little over 90 days. "Membership and Sunday school growth continues each week and the entire church looks forward with great anticipation to the ground breaking ceremonies after all excavation and ground leveling is completed," Milam concluded.

ALLEGED DISTURBER DENIES ALL COUNTS

Carl Joseph Hahn, 565 Beech avenue, San Bruno, whom Daly City police say created quite a disturbance on Junipero Serra boulevard January 7, categorically denied all charges yesterday (Tuesday) in municipal court and his trial was set for February 10 at 9:30 a.m.

In separate complaints, Hahn is charged with being drunk and disturbing the peace and assault and battery and disturbing the peace.

Hahn pleaded not guilty to all counts.

Complainants on the respective charges were Daly City officer James Sunderland and Stanley Aaron, 451 Winston drive, San Francisco.

Expand DC Reserve Police To 75 Men; Ask New Members

The special police reserve component of the Daly City police department will be expanded to 75 men, Chief of Police Roland Petrocchi announced today.

The chief invited all interested able-bodied adult male citizens to sign up for the unit at the police station, 75 Wellington avenue. As the station is open on a 24-hour basis there will be no time limit for applicants.

New applicants will be formed into a training class prior to being assigned duties with the existing reserve force. As in the past, these men will be trained and instructed by regular officers of the department. One regular officer will be assigned to the group to guide them through their training period. In addition to this, the group will be instructed by specialists from within the department, Petrocchi said.

Instructions will include patrol procedure, riot and mob control, use of gas gun and grenades, firearms, radio procedure, records and identification, traffic control, and other as yet unannounced subjects. Instructions will be given by lectures, movies, demonstration, and practical experience. The last will include the practice of allowing the recruit reserve officer to work practical police problems under the supervision of a regular officer; examinations will be held at the end of each subject and at the conclusion of the recruit training.

The chief pointed out that under civil defense practice it will be required that each reserve officer who successfully completes the training course will be asked to perform weekly duties at certain special details such as parades, roadblocks, riding with regular officers and on all emergency cases. The latter will include such events as war emergency or a disaster. Reserve officers have been in existence under the present set-up since 1952. Reserve officers accompany regular officers on their beats for specified weekly periods, and in the past have rendered valuable aid and assistance to the beatman, the department and the city of Daly City, Petrocchi added.

The present Daly City police reserves have recently been re-outfitted in new uniforms, which resemble those of the California Highway patrol. The Eisenhower type jacket is set off by a distinctive shoulder patch identifying the wearer as a Daly City reserve officer. These uniforms and a six-point star will be issued to successful candidates following the usual swearing in ceremony, Petrocchi concluded.

TRANSIT PROBLEM RENEWED

SF Utilities Group To Take It Up Monday

The fate of No. 56 (Cemeteries) and No. 76 (Broadmoor) bus lines will be discussed at a meeting of the Public Utilities Commission Monday.

A recommendation was made last week by Charles D. Miller, manager of the Municipal Railway, that the two local lines be discontinued on February 18. He based his proposal on the fact that both these bus services are running in the red approximately $35,000 per year.

City Administrator Dan Andersen said today that there is "no big worry about losing bus service."

According to Andersen, "I think we can negotiate and maintain the lines. It looks all right." Councilman Sanford Vickers went along with Andersen, asking for time to negotiate.

Fred Martin, local Chamber of Commerce president, said today, "They'll never take out the Cemetery line, it's the only connection San Franciscans have to the cemeteries." Miller's proposal came just a year after the first attempt to abandon the two lines. Martin noted that last year Supervisor Marvin Lewis, as well as the other supervisors, was against the measure. He is of the opinion that the board of supervisors wouldn't vote to discontinue the Cemeteries line. This line connects San Francisco and Daly City to the Colma cemeteries via Mission street.

In reply to a query concerning the Broadmoor line, Martin admitted that there is a possibility that the Muni manager might get the No. 76 bus abandoned. This line links the Broadmoor, Westlake and Daly City residents.

In last year's discussion of the move, it was brought out that several thousand local citizens who work in San Francisco would be stranded, in addition to cutting off shopper's transportation.

A previous attempt to abandon the lines was tabled when the Board of Supervisors stated that there was no parallel service. They asked that Muni work out a partial subsidy agreement with Daly City. Service was cut last August after it was announced that the city couldn't legally subsidize the bus service.

Broadmoor Woman Hospitalized After Overdose Sleeping Pills

She was rushed to Junipero Serra hsopital for emergency treatment and later transferred to San Mateo Community hsopital.

Mrs. Porter later said she hadn't realized how many of the pills she had taken, police related.

She was reported out of danger Monday and released from Community hospital.

Mystery Shrouds Civil War Gun Found Built Into Farm House Wall

A recent gift of an old shotgun to the museum of the San Mateo county historical association came with an unsolved mystery behind it. Mr. George Chalfant, the donor, found the gun hidden in the wall of an old farm house situated on the bank of Tunitas Creek near the coast highway.

In the process of remodeling the house, the walls around the fireplace were opened up and there, built into the walls between the studdings, was the gun.

It is a double barreled, muzzle loading, percussion shotgun, made about the time of the Civil War, probably in England. The barrels are of "Damascus twist" steel which was then the best quality of gun barrel made.

Why was it hidden in the wall? Could it possibly have been by accident? Was someone trying to hide evidence of a murder? Was it hidden to forestall af family shooting affair? Whatever its story may be, the gun is an interesting addition to the Museum's collection of old weapons.

Such items—guns, swords, pistols, etc.—are accepted by the Museum either as gifts or as loans for safe keeping. Anyone who has such things to offer, with or without an accompanying mystery story, may call the museum at the College of San Mateo (DI. 2-1421) and a representative of the museum will arrange to pick up the items offered.

S. F. Allots $237,113 For Serra Maintenance

San Francisco's Board of Supervisors appropriated $237,113 to pay assessments by Joint Highway District 10 for Junipero Serra boulevard Monday. This is in keeping with a plan that the highway be financed jointly by the city of San Francisco, San Mateo county, and the state.

It was learned last week that Daly City refused to accept maintenance of Junipero Serra as it would cost an estimated $3000 to $5000 a year, according to Dan Andersen, City Administrator.

The administrator said that eventually the heavily-travelled highway may become a part of the state highway system.

Junipero Serra is one of two thoroughfares in Daly City used more by other than local motorists.

Test Daly City's Air-Raid Warning Again On Monday

Another sound-off of the city's 22 air raid warning sirens will be held next Monday at 10 a.m.

The general public will not participate in the test, which is designed solely to check the mechanical fitness of the devices. Foot and motor traffic and all other normal activities will continue as usual, Dan Andersen, USN, (Ret.), director for Daly City, announced.

Audibility of each siren and its sound coverage wil lbe reported by pre-arranged monitors and charted, as have been the results of previous tests.

At 10 a.m. sharp, the signals will sound. After a minute of silence, the "all clear," composed of 3 steady blasts with two-minute intervals, will be heard.

Monday's tests in Daly City—third in the present series of six ordered by Governor Knight, will be simultaneous with "dry runs" in other communities in California.

Discuss Restricting Freeway Billboards

With a view to rallying support for restriction of billboards along local freeways, a group of San Mateo county citizens met last week at the Benjamin Franklin hotel.

Chairman of the meeting was John W. Broad of San Mateo, representing the California roadside council, a state-wide citizen organization devoted to the improvement of highway appearance.

County Planning Director Frank Skillman, invited to the meeting to explain certain provisions in the proposed new County Zoning Ordinance, stated that according to these provisions, a 500-foot setback would be required for all outdoor advertising adjacent to any freeway in the unincorporated areas of the county.

Such a regulation, Skillman explained, would prevent the construction of conspicuous and distracting lines of billboards as the major feature of the high-speed thoroughfares, and would make it possible for the State division of highways to proceed with plans for landscaping.

Photographs were shown illustrating the contrast betwen certain parts of the Bayshore freeway where zoning already prevents the erection of billboards (as, for instance, between the airport and South San Francisco) and other areas where the boards are practically continuous.

Rec Commission Sets Budget Meet Monday

A special meeting of the recreation commission to further discuss the budget is scheduled for next Monday at 8 p.m. in the community center.

At a Tuesday night session the commission approved a measure to present a spring concert rather than a festival, due to the uncertainty of fether conditions.

Discussion on requests for use of the community center will be held at a later meeting, Walter Gillies, publicity chairman, announced (Wednesday).

Other business included a report stating that 15,000 children took advantage of park activities during the month of December. Gillies added that fill is now being dumped in Westlake park, preparatory to the park's use by the public.

COUNCILMEN NIX DS PHONE LISTING IN MATEO DIRECTORY

Two Daly City councilmen today emphatically denied that the city is seeking to have local phone numbers listed in the San Mateo county directory instead of San Francisco.

Statement in a metropolitan newspaper quoted City Administrator Dan Andersen as saying the phone switch would be made to eliminate confusion.

Councilmen Del Wilson and Edward Dennis said today they would oppose any move to remove Daly City from the San Francisco directory.

Telephone subscribers in Daly City, Colma, Broadmoor, Colma, Brisbane, Bayshore City and parts of South San Francisco now are listed in the San Francisco directory.

77 YOUNGSTERS ATTEND SESSION OF BIKE SCHOOL

Seventy boys and seven girls rode their bicycles to Garden Village school yard last Saturday morning to attend the first session of bicycle school. The session called for the previous Saturday had been rained out.

The school, a project of the Broadmoor police department, with the cooperation of the James L. Snell PTA, has as its purpose instruction in the proper use and care of a bicycle. In this way accidents and injuries involving riders may be kept at a minimum.

Chief Ray Savage gave an informal talk on the traffic laws and safety rules regarding bicycle riders. Such points as one person on a bicycle—both hands on the handlebars — observing traffic lights and signs—proper lights and reflectors on bicycles for night riding were emphasized.

Following the training and instruction sessions during the next month, tests will be given and licenses issued.

As part of the requirements for licensing, each bicycle will be given a safety check. All defects noted must be corrected before a license can be given. After receiving it, a child will not have to attend further sessions of the school. However, since traffic regulations have been explained, the bicyclist will be liable for citation by any Broadmoor police officer if he violates the regulations.

Later on, bicycle court will be held two Saturdays a month to deal with any such citations issued. The school will then be held on two alternate Saturdays.

Next week's plans call for training with the use of arterial stop signs and outlines of crossings, crosswalks, etc. Future projects include the possibility of a trick formation riding group.

This is a worthwhile project, and it will need the cooperation of parents to make it a success. Chief Savage is asking PTA fathers to help out. Those interested may call him at PL. 5-3838 or PL. 5-5305, or call John Mitchell at PL. 5-0679.

RECORDS-STANDINGS RE-SHUFFLED IN SATURDAY REC PLAY

Individual records and team standings underwent a decided re-shuffling in both the "A" and "B" divisions of the Daly City Rec Basketball league Saturday at the community center.

After the wild melee was over a quick review showed the following: Colma Rebels had taken over undisputed first place in the "A" circuit with an amazing 18-8 win over previously unbeaten Sharp Park; The "B" competition was thrown into a three-way tie for first as Holy Angels upset league-leading Sharp Park, 13-12, putting these two teams and OLPH into a triple heat for the lead; Two Westlake representatives moved near the top of the rung for individual "A" league scoring as the 'Trotters manhandled Brisbane, 52-14, to reveal a powerful offensive unit; twice in the same day a record was established as two teams playing in separate contests failed to score for an entire half.

Colma Nips Sharp Park

The first point-less half came in the day's top game, pitting Colma Rebels against Sharp Park. Playing strict ball control type games, the two teams battled to a 8-8 half-time tie, with the score changing hands several times in the first two periods.

In the second half Colma hit for two consecutive field and goals and two free throws to assume a 14-8 advantage. From there on out they held complete ball control and kept the heretofore undefeated coastsiders scoreless, racking up two more field goals to make it a decisive win. It was the first time in the league's history that a team had failed to score throughout an entire half, but the amazing incident was to recur only a few minutes later.

John Featherstone led the Colma Rebels with seven points, followed by Larry Schoenfeldt, five, Ron Kalinin, four, and Don Burley, two.

For Sharp Park it was A. Twitty with five points topping his team's scoring, followed by B. Garrup and Ed Shook with two and one points, respectively.

Trotters Trounce Brisbane

Westlake Globetrotters took over undisputed third place in the "A" league with their resounding 52-14 win over Brisbane. Ross Holmgren, popping through 23 points, paced the attack and moved into second place in the league for individual scoring.

Westlake opened fast, dominating play with a 23-9 half-time lead.

Holmgren, a whiz on both shooting and assists, was aided in the scoring department by Pete Garcia, 13, Steve Oppermann, 10, and Ernie Howren, six points. Oppermann's point total placed him in third spot for league scoring behind teammate Holmgren. Brisbane's John Galtin, the league's leading point-maker, was held to five digits. Rich Strassberger also got five for the losers, followed by Dick Kuhn with four.

Backboard work of Howren and Bill Kett kept Westlake in possession of the ball about 90 per cent of the time.

Holy Angels Win

In Class "B's" feature game Holy Angels played as a unit and kept the score knotted in the first three quarters. In the fourth canto Sharp Park could only hit on one field goal, while the parochial five gained the margin of victory with a field goal and a free throw.

OLPH, with Bill Whalen getting six points and Mike Kennedy four, eased Broadmoor Royals further back in the "B" division cellar with a 13-10 win. The Royals have yet to win a game. High scorers for the losers were Dixie Howell and Bill Dougherty, five apiece. This contest found the Royals unable to get on the scoreboard for the entire first half, equalling the record set earlier in the day.

Cards Smothered

Broadmoor's other "B" league representative, the Cardinals, were smothered by Brisbane, 30-10, as little Bobby With continued to dominate division scoring with a 22-point output.

At the end of the first quarter it was With, 7, Broadmoor, 0.

With continued to pour it on, collecting six points in the second quarter and Brisbane (or With) held a 13-2 half-time margin.

Bobby got some assistance from Ron Dixon, who netted six for the afternoon, and John Galton, who got two.

With continued his pot-shots, registering three more field goals in the third quarter and two field goals and a free throw in the final session. Wayne Moon led the Card's scoring with seven points.

CENTRAL CLUB MAINTAINS HOLD ON KEG LEAGUE

Nipping Daly City Eagles for a pair of games, Central Club maintained their first-place hold on the Daly City-Colma Bowling league at Brentwood Tuesday night.

The Central clubbers now have a 10-2 mark. In hot pursuit, with a 9-3 record, is Wm. Lagomarsino & Co., who took two games from Lucca Meat Tuesday.

Thur Meat, doubling over Ralph's Cleaners, hold down third spot with an 8-4 mark. In fourth position is Daly City-Colma Lions kegmen, sporting a 7-5 record. The Lions knocked over John's Brentwood Restaurant Tuesday for three straight.

Al Wright of Ralph's Cleaners, banging the pins for a brisk 242, posted the evening's high individual game. Vince & Fred's Lloyd Selmi turned in a 584 series, high in that department for the night.

In the individual high game race, Wright was followed closely by Pete Collodi of Apple Tree Restaurant, who rolled a 236. T. Gantert of Marketeers was third with a 229.

Other high individual games included: G. Carlisle, Walters', 219; Selmi, 215; J. Mutto, Paul's Flowers, 211; M. Pheasant, Deer License Sales Show Increase

Sale of hunting and fishing licenses and tags as of December 31 showed substantial increases over the same period of 1953, according to reports compiled by the Department of Fish and Game.

Following are the licenses sold and reported as of the end of the year:

Hunting: 520,790, compared to 510,978 in 1953 or a gain of 2.1%.

Fishing: 1,196,389, compared to 1,146,726 in 1953, a gain 4.3%.

Deer tags: 389,185, compared to 365,344 in 1953 a increase of 7.9%.

Pheasant tags: 179,275 compared to 157,655 the previous year, or a gain of 13.9 %.

The Department reported that many licenses and tags still are in the hands of license agents and are not yet reported in the total. It is expected that the final figure on angling licenses will run well over the 1,200,000 mark, and that the hunting license figure will rise considerably.

DIKAS, SEMI-PRO ACE, GREETS NEW ARRIVAL AT HOME

Arthur Dikas, 153 Westlawn, well-known figure in the ranks of San Francisco semi-pro baseball, was greeted with a second child last week when his wife delivered a seven pound baby girl at Mary's Help hospital.

The newcomer was named Elaine Louise, and has a two-year-old brother, Michael.

Papa Dikas just recently retired from semi-pro ball. A member of the San Francisco Old Timers' association, he played short stop at Balboa high school, winning an All-City position, and later competed on championship teams in both the Golden Gate Park and Seals Stadium leagues.

DC Cagers Split With Bearcats, Carlmont

Despite a 22-point outburst in the final quarter, Jefferson High school varsity basketball team suffered a 59-57 loss at the hands of Carlmont Tuesday.

The Indians commanded a 22-21 half-time lead, only to fall apart in the third quarter as the Scots bombarded the basket for 24 points. At one period in the third canto the Jeffs trailed by 20 points.

In the last quarter the Indians were revived, behind Al Lagomarsino's 11-point contribution. With four seconds to go and trailing behind two points the Daly City club stole the ball, only to have the buzzer sound before they could attempt a field goal.

Lagomarsino was high scorer for the Indians, hitting 17.

Score For Opponents

What might have proved the deciding bucket in the game was actually scored by a Jefferson player in the last quarter. Leaping up for a re-bound under the Carlmont bucket, Larry Hutchinson hit the net. Although the ball bounced out, the referees declared the basket good.

The Jeffs plays worked smoothly, but shooting was way off, as the local club hit on only 18 of 52 field goal attempts.

In the free throw department, Jefferson fared better, sinking 21 out of 30, while Carlmont was getting 15 of 20.

Again Stan Freman, now a starter with the Jeff five, proved an outstanding playmaker for the Indians, although hitting only three points.

The loss put Jeffs' PAL mark at two wins, two losses.

Jefferson High school's varsity and lightweight cagers, each with .500 marks in PAL competition, travel to San Mateo tonight (Friday) to tangle with a pair of rough Bearcat teams, beginning at 7:30 p.m.

Tuesday the Daly City quintet engage traditional rival South San Francisco on the home courts in an afternoon contest beginning at 3:15 p.m.

In the lightweight encounter the little Indians caught fire to swamp the Carlmont five, 52-39. Smooth floor play by Rich Gonzales and a 15-point output by Bill Curtis kept the Jeffs in control throughout.

Half-time score favored the Indians, 26-11, and they continued to increase the lead in the second half.

The local 30s showed exceptional ball handling throughout the contest in racking up their highest point total of the season.

Daly City's lightweights now have a 2-2 mark in league play.

Friday night the Jefferson varsity put down a well-regarded Burlingame club, 50-43. Using a zone defense with occasional man-to-man, the Jeffs had little trouble in squelching the Panthers attack. Freman was top man for Jeff in taking them off the boards, followed closely by Wesley Yates. High scorer for the Indians was Babe Anguillo with 12, followed by Freman's 11.

At half-time the Indians held a 19-17 lead, and continued to outscore the Burlingame cagers in the remaining two quarters.

Three Foul Out

Jim Honeywell, Lagomarsino and Freman all fouled out in the last quarter.

In the lightweight tilt, Jefferson got set back, 39-33, by the Burlingame crew as the Daly City casabamen were unable to hit with any consistency.

The Jeffs managed to outscore the Panthers in the third quarter, but not enough to offset the 28-17 half-time margin the Burlingame team had amassed.

Bill Curtis again set the scoring pace for the local lightweights, hitting 11 markers.

MOSSI TEAMS WITH CREIGHTON FOR NO-HITTER

Two Sarto A.C. teammates got together Sunday at Marchbanks park to fashion the first no-hitter at the local diamond in more than a year.

Don Mossi, "resting up" before he enters spring training with the Cleveland Indians February 26, went the first six frames against Cherolis' nursery and held the flowermen hitless, giving up one walk and striking out 10 batsmen.

Lowell Creighton, returning to action after a long lay-off, went the next three innings for Sarto, and was equally stingy, blanking Cherolis' hitters while giving up on walk, striking out three.

In winning, 7-0, Sarto registered two scores in the first inning after Bob Zucca singled, and Manuel Romero and Gordie Gomes doubled in order.

The AC picked up four more in the sixth as Cheroli's defense fell apart. One more run in the seventh concluded the day's scoring.

Romero led Sarto hitting, slugging out two doubles and two singles in four trips.

Only two Cherolis men reached first base throughout the entire contest.

For Mossi, it was the first time he had seen mound duty since before Christmas. Creighton had been ailing six weeks with a sore arm.

The Cleveland ace will make his last pitching appearance in the Bay Area February 6 in a March of Dimes benefit contest in Alameda. Both teams will be formed from northern California major league stars. Don will be starting chucker for his team.

The local moundsman departs February 26 for spring training in Tucson, Ariz.

Sarto A.C. faces an opponent yet to be named this Sunday at Marchbanks, starting at 2 p.m.

Undefeated Molina Vs. Conley In OLPH Main Event

Santa Clara Youth Center's Luis Molina, boasting 16-straight wins in as many amateur ring outings, will give away about 10 pounds when he takes on Al Conley February 10 in the main event of the OLPH Men's club fourth fight presentation at the community center.

Conley, at 144 pounds, and Molina, 132, are both repeat performers at the local arena. Molina was featured in the first two ring offerings, handily disposing of L. C. Cage and Bill Orais, a pair of performers not to be lightly reckoned with.

Conley, in his November appearance here, knocked out Tony Ross in one minute of the third round.

Chenco Chavez, brother of top-ranked lightweight pro, Eddie, will try to make it two straight in his brief amateur career when he battles Henry Zamacona in a 140-pound preliminary event. Chavez made his debut here last month a successful one, winning by a KO. Zamacona has had four fights, winning half of them.

In another prelim, Bill Moon, undefeated in four tests, two of them here, will face an untried Daly City boy, Charles McDougall, in a 150-pound division fracas. It will be McDougall's first encounter.

THE OUTDOORS

RECOMMENDATIONS PRESENTED TO COMMISSION FOR '55

Following are the major recommendations by the Department of Fish and Game in the 1955 hunting and angling regulations, as presented to the Fish and Game Commission at its January 7 meeting in Los Angeles:

Game

Addition of one week to the Coastal deer season, with the dates August 6 to September 18 inclusive.

An either-sex hunt during the final three days of the Sierra season for hunters with unused "B" tags, in the counties of Glenn, Colusa, Sutter, Yolo, Solano, San Joaquin, Sacramento, Yuba, Butte, Amador and Calaveras, and portions of Alpine, Eldorado, Placer, Nevada west of the Sierra summit. The proposal is contingent on expiration and non-renewal of the forked horn and female deer prohibition of Section 1251.5 of the Fish and Game Code and on the outcome of a hearing to be held in Sacramento on February 7.

Sierra season dates of September 24 through October 23. Recommended bag limit is two bucks, forked horn or better in the coastal and northwestern part of the state, and one buck, also forked horn or better in the remainder.

An open season year around with no bag limit in Humboldt county only was suggested for bear hunting.

Archery seasons for bear and deer were recommended to include July 23 to August 1 for the central and south coastal area; September 10 to September 19 for the inland season area, and a special either-sex hunt July 23 through December 31 in portions of Los Angeles county.

A ten-day pheasant season from November 19 through 28 was suggested with a change in the bag limit in the southern part of the state of two birds (cock or hen) per day and ten per season. The chukar season was extended to coincide with the pheasant season, and Orange and Los Angeles counties added to the open area in the recommendation.

Use of shotguns, firing single slugs or buckshot, was recommended as legal for deer or bears.

Fish

No broad changes were suggested in the northern California trout season, recommended to open on the Saturday nearest May 1, and the late opening on May 28.

Several local changes included year around fishing on Lake Tahoe, with a bag limit of five trout or salmon; the Sacramento river open year around from Keswick dam to Carquinez bridge, bag limit three trout or salmon; no closed season, bag limit of three trout or salmon, in the tidewaters of Mattole, Bear, Eel, Elk, Mad, Little Klamath and Smith rivers, and Freshwater and Redwood creeks; all of Humboldt county, except lagoons, to open May 28.

Southern California trout season to open April 16, including Santa Barbara, Ventura, Los Angeles, San Bernardino, and all counties south of these.

Added to the list of lakes on which there is no closed season, with summer trout limit in effect all year, were Keswick reservoir, Isabella reservoir, Phoenix lake, Dallas-Warner reservoir, Pine Flat reservoir, and Melones reservoir.

Bag limit on striped bass recommended as four fish rather than 25 pounds and one fish. A recommendation that trolling for sturgeon be prohibited was presented to the commission. Also, the department recommended opening of several streams to salmon and steelhead fishing, including portions of Putah, Thomes, Stony and Alameda creeks, and additional portions of the Napa and San Joaquin rivers. Also recommended were numerous closures of streams and lakes having local significance, and the opening of others.

The department also suggested the outlawing of treble hooks larger than 1¼ inches between points on specified steelhead and salmon waters the year around rather than only during the steelhead season, prohibition of use of carp and goldfish statewide, except for carp in the Colorado river, and to allow night fishing in Clear lake.

Sportsmen's recommendations varied considerably from earlier deer seasons to much later ones, and included weekend pheasant hunting, longer pheasant seasons with the same seasonal bag limit, from requests for either-sex deer shoots, to complete opposition to taking of female deer.

There was disagreement on an earlier southern California trout season, and a split on the subject of a winter deer season in the same area. Some recommended a statewide ten-fish trout limit, and some asked for special trout stamps. Many public recommendations were concerned with local closures and stream openings.

Sportsmen's recommendations generally were agreed on no prohibition against magnum shotguns.

The Commission also scheduled hearings for February 7 in Sacramento and Los Angeles, on the Department recommendations for either-sex deer seasons in the central Sierra district, and for the Los Angeles archery season.

William J. Silva of Modesto was re-elected chairman of the Commission for 1955.

PUBLIC WATERFOWL SHOOTING AREA BAG SHOWS DECREASE

Plagued by every conceivable bad weather break, ranging from long periods of "bluebird" weather to flooded lowlands, California waterfowl hunters have put away their shotguns for the season ending January 10.

On public shooting areas operated by the Department of Fish and Game, the nimrods finished with a lower bag and a slightly lower daily average bag.

All told 80,529 waterfowl were bagged on the department's 12 public shooting areas, compared to 98,201 last year. Average daily bag per hunter was 2.5 this season and 2.6 the previous year.

Shooting areas were utilized to 57 per cent of the capacity during the 1954-55 season, against 63 percent utilization the previous season, probably because of the extremely poor hunting weather which prevailed during most of the first half of the 72-day split season.

The bag fell off in all respects with ducks showing a decrease of more than 15,000 from the previous season, with geese and coots falling off proportionately.

After a first half of sunshiny weather, the second half was greeted by rains, and soon the bypasses were flooded, making things pretty difficult for the unattached hunter, and scattering the birds.

In addition, several of the areas, particularly the federal refuges, were closed during much of the first half because of crop depredation measures.

Recent aerial censuses showed that the number of birds in the state near the close of the season was about the same as last year, indicating that weather conditions were mostly to blame for the lack of success this season.

The season on black sea brant remains open until February 10.

Sarto Sponsored Club Grabs SF Winter Play

The Hilltoppers, an aggregation of University of San Francisco baseball players sponsored by local sports enthusiast Joseph Sarto wound up their initial season in the San Francisco Recreation AA Winter league with the championship.

Playing their final game last weekend, the Hilltoppers finished with a 9-1 record.

The club is coached by Dutch Anderson, head baseball mentor at USF.

WILDCATS TAKE OVER BROADMOOR LEAGUE

Webby Parker, hitting eight field goals and a free throw for a 17-point total, sparked the Wildcats to a 30-25 win over the Demons Thursday in Broadmoor Youth league play at Jefferson High school.

The victory, second straight for the Wildcats, gave them leadership in the four-team Round Robin league.

The contest was close in the first half, with Wildcats clinging to a mere 9-8 advantage.

Don Harris and Bill Dougherty, hitting eight and seven points, respectively, led the losers' cause. Dixie Howell was runner-up in scoring for the 'Cats, posting nine markers.

In the evening's second tilt Bobcats trod over the Hawks, 42-29, as Wayne Moon potted 14 points for the victors. He was followed by Frank Dykes' eight tallies. Pacing the losers was George Muller with 10.

Half-time score favored the Bobcats, 24-16.

Tomorrow night's action finds the Wildcats meeting the Hawks and Bobcats pairing off with the Demons.
